

TREASURY DEFICIT.

Will not Continue Much Longer.

Officials Confident of Increased Receipts.

Will Average a Million Dollars Daily Until October.

Expenditures Will Be Heavy for Some Time Because of Stamp Rebates.

THE DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Officials connected with the financial branch of the Treasury Department express confidence today that the present deficit in the treasury will not continue for more than a few weeks. Nevertheless, the relation of receipts to expenditures is much less reassuring than the treasury officials believed two months ago that it would be. It was expected at the opening of the fiscal year, which began seven weeks ago, that there would be an excess of disbursements over the receipts for the month of July, for this has frequently been the case, even in most prosperous years.

Large payments are always made immediately after the beginning of the new fiscal period to United States disbursing officers in various parts of the world, and there are always large obligations to meet on account of Congress's appropriations, which become available at this time.

The deficit at the end of July amounted to about $7,500,000, but it was predicted at the time that this would be wiped out within six or eight weeks, and possibly by the end of August. One factor, however, seems to have been left out of account for two or three days ago it was announced that rebates on account of unused internal revenue stamps, now made useless to their purchasers on account of the repeal of war taxes, would begin very soon. This will take nearly $3,000,000 out of the treasury at once, and of course defers the time when the present deficit may be canceled. There have been indications within the last few days, however, which leads the treasury officials to believe that within a week or two the average daily receipts of the government for an extended period will exceed the disbursements.

In the first week of August the receipts from customs amounted to $4,600,000. During the last week the customs receipts have exceeded the first week's record by something like $1,000,000, and for the last three days the income from this source has averaged about $1,300,000 daily. The increased receipts indicate that the fall mercantile business is increasing, and it is believed that from now on a turnover of $1,300,000 a day until perhaps the end of October.

Although the expenditures of the government will be heavy for some time on account of the rebates on revenue stamps, other sources of unusually heavy disbursements have disappeared. On the other hand, government receipts have increased very materially, and there has been a balance on the right side of the ledger for the last five days, amounting in the aggregate to nearly $2,500,000.

PRESIDENT IS POPULAR.

THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Secretary of Agriculture returned to Washington today from the West. When he was asked to define the tariff plan adopted by the Republicans of Iowa, Secretary Wilson said: "It means that the people want a revision of those schedules that were adopted to protect industries which no longer need such protection. That is what they expect of the Republican party. They are particularly anxious to see a modification of the duties that affect agriculture. This is the situation in Iowa and throughout that section of the country generally. Abundant crops have resulted in exceptional prosperity. Western banks are overflowing, farmers have improved their farms to the utmost, and are now investing in land, even going to the extent of buying land in British Columbia. Under these circumstances they believe that the time is ripe for such a moderate modification of the tariff as I have indicated. But, and it should be emphasized, this does not mean that the people of Iowa are any less protectionists than they have always been."

Speaking of the President, Secretary Wilson said that the people were enthusiastic in their approval of his administration, and many Democrats expressed regret that he was not a leader of their party. He continued: "They regard his course in appealing to the courts to regulate the trusts as logical and manly. They have every confidence that the existing law is not thoroughly tested; that, if it proves defective, the President will advise Congress to that effect; and that Congress will promptly remedy the defects. Western people regard Mr. Roosevelt as fearless, and they love that type of man. It appeals to the western nature."

The Secretary leaves tomorrow for Vermont, where he will speak in the campaign.

SITUATION IMPROVES.

BOWEN CAN SPARE VESSELS.

THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—The State Department is in receipt of a cablegram from Minister Bowen at Caracas, saying that he could spare two of the war vessels now in Venezuelan waters. This information is taken to mean that the situation in Venezuela has improved so far that little danger now threatens American interests.

The fact that two of the three American warships now in Venezuelan waters can be spared will permit the Navy Department to dispatch the Mariano Gómez to the Pacific. In proceeding when, in response to Minister Bowen's call, she was diverted to Venezuela. The maintenance of an American warship on the gun site of the Isthmus is necessary to insure railway transit across the Isthmus. The Topeka will be ordered north immediately, and she will be followed by the gunboat Machias as soon as possible, so that the gunboat's date for him to leave Cape Haytien.

The departure of these two ships for Venezuela will leave the Cincinnati in Venezuelan waters and the Marietta on the coast of Panama to look after American interests.

JAPAN DEVELOPING TRADE.

THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—Japan is making an effort to develop her trade in Siberia, according to a report from United States Commercial Agent Greene at Vladivostok dated June 27, which was made public at the State Department today. Greene says that a Japanese commercial agent is making a tour of that territory to locate eligible localities for a commercial representative of Japan and to endeavor to ripen the trade of Japan there in various other ways.

The agent is accompanied by three grammar school, all of whom are familiar with the Russian language.

GAGE LOSING STRENGTH AS TIME GROWS NEAR.

THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.

OPPOSING CANDIDATES WINNING UNPLEDGED DELEGATES.

Forces Supporting Flint, Pardoe, Edson and Hayes Have Sufficient Strength to Organize the Convention. Cal. Burns Commands the Machines Forces.

THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] As the day for the convention draws near, it becomes more evident that Gage is losing strength, his losses being mostly from the list of unpledged delegates, who had a leaning in his favor, but who have been won over by one or the other of the opposing candidates.

The forces supporting Flint, Pardoe, Edson and Hayes have sufficient strength to organize the Republican State Convention, despite all rumors to the contrary, there is no break in the good-government line. All indications point to the election of Hon. Jacob H. Neff of Placer chairman.

Reports were freely circulated today that the Lieutenant-Governor was so feeble that he could not leave his room, but nevertheless, the pioneer and stalwart Republican of the mountains was all day long the glad hand to throngs of yellow-delegates in the Union League Club.

The activities of the gubernatorial campaign will soon be transferred to Sacramento. By Monday night the candidates will be aligned on the field of final conflict. A round of operations during the past week affords special encouragement to the men who are battling to banish Gagism, Lawlorism and Kevanism from the polities of the State. The belief now is firmly grounded that Gage is fully 100 votes short of the number required to nominate him for Governor.

Some time before the death of Cecil Rhodes the Countess published an article on "Training Girls for the Transvaal," in which she appealed to Andrew Carnegie for aid for the work. When the provisions of Rhodes' will were made known, it was reported that he had left a large sum of money to the Earl and Countess of Warwick, because the Countess more than all other English women, best personified British imperialism from the stand-point of view.

The will was denied, however, by an intimate friend of Rhodes, who was familiar with the contents of the will.

Col. Burns has charge of the machine forces. He has lost more battles than any other political manager in the land. He lost the Estee fight but nevertheless, he has won over and again. Everybody knew that the judgment of one man and the word of the other. He lost his own fight for the United States Senate because the people could not stand for the raw programme which he presented to the convention. In this fight for Gage he has already adopted a policy of vaccination. He took Curry for Secretary of State, and Al Johnson for State Printer of the Gage slate, and subsequently restored Curry. At present Shannon is on the slate, but his name may be erased in Al Johnson's favor before the balloting begins.

In summing up the situation, men who believe Gage cannot win the nomination, point to the following facts in support of their theory:

Gage, to win the votes of the southern counties four years ago, gave the impression that he would help those who were elected Governor he would help any southern candidate for United States Senator, but instead used all of his influence to prevent the election of a southern candidate, and by his faithlessness in this and other matters turned the Republicans of the southern part of the State against him.

The horticulturists and agriculturists in all parts of the State are hostile to him, he having shown hostility to them by vetoing and pocketing the bills in which they were interested, making no appointments that they wanted, keeping aloof from them, and causing a loss to the State, estimated by a conservative authority at $20,000,000 for two years by killing the measure designed to promote irrigation and forestry work in conjunction with the Federal government.

The horticultural, agricultural and mining counties have made apparent their antagonism to Gage in the election of delegates to the State convention, being derived from the districts dominated by the railroad and the bosses.

The only claim for reelection which he presents, namely, that he has kept the tax levy down to a low rate this year, is without merit, inasmuch as by voting needed appropriations for State institutions, for his own purpose, he has crippled them for the remainder of his term, and all of these appropriations will have to be granted next year, thus making a large levy probable, for the first year of the next administration, and conferring no good on the taxpayers.

Notwithstanding his efforts to get the labor vote, he can offer no reason why he did not receive a larger share of the Chinese, being taken a Chinese murderer from San Quentin to be his cook, and having by act, personal or official, helped the cause of labor. He signed the Railroad Police Bill, a measure directed at the labor unions, and in the interest of the Southern Pacific, which as a law, may give rise to serious trouble some day unless it be repealed.

His election would be an impossibility, it would be foolish, it is pointed out, even from the point of view of the practical politician to nominate him.

ENGLAND. BOND-BLAINE CONVENTION.

England Finally Gives Assent to It.

Measure of Reciprocity With Newfoundland.

Revival of Agreement Made by the Late Great Republican Leader.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.

LONDON, Aug. 22.—[By Atlantic Cable] Sir Robert Bond, the Premier and Colonial Secretary of Newfoundland, sailed from Liverpool yesterday for Montreal on the Allan liner Pretoria, with full power to form an imperial government to resume negotiations through the British Charge d'Affaires for the ratification of the Bond-Blaine convention.

The convention on the part of Newfoundland was a special agreement entered into about ten years ago between the late James G. Blaine, then Secretary of State, and the Premier of Newfoundland.

The convention on the part of Newfoundland granted to United States fishermen considerable privileges in regard to purchasing bait, and largely reduced the duties on a considerable class of American imports into Newfoundland.

The United States on its side, opened its markets to Newfoundland fisher products, and confirmed the privileges of transportation of fresh fish in the United States markets.

The Newfoundland Premier has declared himself in favor of free trade with the United States, as against a union of the colony with the Dominion of Canada. His success in obtaining this position for his American visit is the culmination of twelve years of effort, and only this week was he able to convince the government of the injustice done to Newfoundland by the non-recognition of the convention, and secure its assent to the resumption of the reciprocity negotiations.

The Premier will lose no time in getting to work, and the British Charge d'Affaires will communicate with the State Department shortly after his arrival in America.

LETT'S A COUNTRY LANDS.

REQUEST MADE BY RHODES.

THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.

LONDON, Aug. 22.—[By Atlantic Cable] The Essex County Chronicle says it hears that Cecil Rhodes bequeathed to the Countess of Warwick lands in South Africa which have been sold for $1,000,000.

Some time before the death of Cecil Rhodes the Countess published an article on "Training Girls for the Transvaal," in which she appealed to Andrew Carnegie for aid for the work. When the provisions of Rhodes' will were made known, it was reported that he had left a large sum of money to the Earl and Countess of Warwick, because the Countess more than all other English women, best personified British imperialism from the stand-point of view.

The will was denied, however, by an intimate friend of Rhodes, who was familiar with the contents of the will.

Metal for Hutchinson.

THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.

LONDON, Aug. 22.—Miller, Reese-Hutchinson of New York, who sailed from New York today on the steamer Celtic, was summoned to Cowes yesterday by a man who was received from Queen Alexandra a special coronation medal.

Hutchinson had been treating the Queen for deafness, but her Majesty handed the gift to her recognition of Hutchinson's services to the Queen in London, in whose welfare she is greatly interested.

Liberals Make Gains.

THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.

LONDON, Aug. 22.—H. W. Forester, Parliamentary reporter, has been relieved of his post as editor of the Conservative newspaper, the Times of London, caused by his appointment to Lord Commissioner of the Treasury. His majority was made, 391 votes to the Liberal candidate, Beaumont Morice. The contest centered on the Education Bill.

WILL SETTLE IN IDAHO.

BOISE (Idaho) Aug. 22.—Stewart M. Brice, son of the late Senator Calvin S. Brice, who made a somewhat sensational appearance in the Senate, was elected to the Idaho legislature, having just returned from the Morley session. He comes out of the mountains as a delegate to the Democratic State Convention. Brice is pleased with Idaho, and intends to make this State his home.

Liberals Make Gains.

THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.

LONDON, Aug. 22.—Sir Edward Grey, Foreign Secretary, has been relieved of his post as Minister of War, caused by his appointment to Lord Commissioner of the Treasury. His majority was made, 391 votes to the Liberal candidate, Beaumont Morice. The contest centered on the Education Bill.

WILL SETTLE IN IDAHO.

BOISE (Idaho) Aug. 22.—Stewart M. Brice, son of the late Senator Calvin S. Brice, who made a somewhat sensational appearance in the Senate, was elected to the Idaho legislature, having just returned from the Morley session. He comes out of the mountains as a delegate to the Democratic State Convention. Brice is pleased with Idaho, and intends to make this State his home.

Liberals Make Gains.

THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.

LONDON, Aug. 22.—Sir Edward Grey, Foreign Secretary, has been relieved of his post as Minister of War, caused by his appointment to Lord Commissioner of the Treasury. His majority was made, 391 votes to the Liberal candidate, Beaumont Morice. The contest centered on the Education Bill.

WILL SETTLE IN IDAHO.

BOISE (Idaho) Aug. 22.—Stewart M. Brice, son of the late Senator Calvin S. Brice, who made a somewhat sensational appearance in the Senate, was elected to the Idaho legislature, having just returned from the Morley session. He comes out of the mountains as a delegate to the Democratic State Convention. Brice is pleased with Idaho, and intends to make this State his home.

Liberals Make Gains.

THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.

LONDON, Aug. 22.—Sir Edward Grey, Foreign Secretary, has been relieved of his post as Minister of War, caused by his appointment to Lord Commissioner of the Treasury. His majority was made, 391 votes to the Liberal candidate, Beaumont Morice. The contest centered on the Education Bill.

WILL SETTLE IN IDAHO.

BOISE (Idaho) Aug. 22.—Stewart M. Brice, son of the late Senator Calvin S. Brice, who made a somewhat sensational appearance in the Senate, was elected to the Idaho legislature, having just returned from the Morley session. He comes out of the mountains as a delegate to the Democratic State Convention. Brice is pleased with Idaho, and intends to make this State his home.

Liberals Make Gains.

THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.

LONDON, Aug. 22.—Sir Edward Grey, Foreign Secretary, has been relieved of his post as Minister of War, caused by his appointment to Lord Commissioner of the Treasury. His majority was made, 391 votes to the Liberal candidate, Beaumont Morice. The contest centered on the Education Bill.

WILL SETTLE IN IDAHO.

BOISE (Idaho) Aug. 22.—Stewart M. Brice, son of the late Senator Calvin S. Brice, who made a somewhat sensational appearance in the Senate, was elected to the Idaho legislature, having just returned from the Morley session. He comes out of the mountains as a delegate to the Democratic State Convention. Brice is pleased with Idaho, and intends to make this State his home.

Liberals Make Gains.

THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.

LONDON, Aug. 22.—Sir Edward Grey, Foreign Secretary, has been relieved of his post as Minister of War, caused by his appointment to Lord Commissioner of the Treasury. His majority was made, 391 votes to the Liberal candidate, Beaumont Morice. The contest centered on the Education Bill.

WILL SETTLE IN IDAHO.

BOISE (Idaho) Aug. 22.—Stewart M. Brice, son of the late Senator Calvin S. Brice, who made a somewhat sensational appearance in the Senate, was elected to the Idaho legislature, having just returned from the Morley session. He comes out of the mountains as a delegate to the Democratic State Convention. Brice is pleased with Idaho, and intends to make this State his home.

Liberals Make Gains.

THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.

LONDON, Aug. 22.—Sir Edward Grey, Foreign Secretary, has been

SAFETY BACK IN MANILA.

Great Reception Given to the Governor.

Thousands Turn Out to Do Him Honor.

Makes a Characteristic Response to an Address of Welcome.

THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.—MANILA, Aug. 22.—By Manila Cable. Taft reached here this morning at daylight, having been welcomed by a large crowd. Although the sky was clear, it was traversed by a number of storm clouds. Circumstance prevented the lighting of lights, so as to do violence in regard to the atmosphere.

"MR. DOOLEY" will do his best advantage of weak English, in the style of the magazine of the same name.

"THE MAMMOTH CAVE" is the title of a new magazine of hunting and outdoor sports.

"Seven On" is the title of a new magazine.

September 22 to this date.

REPORTING RECORD.

DOWNFALL OF DR. PIM.

British Ex-Champion Beaten at Tennis.

L. E. Ware of Boston Turns the Trick.

Six Events at Napa With a General Holiday—The Sport Elsewhere.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.

NEWPORT (R. I.) Aug. 22.—The tennis of the fourth day of the national tennis championship play at the Casino was made noteworthy by the defeat of Dr. Joshua Pim, a former champion of all England. L. E. Ware of Boston accomplished the downfall of the British veteran, and did it in straight sets. This match was, however, one of a number of interesting contests, in which that between M. D. Whitman and Beals C. Wright attracted the most attention, Whitman winning three sets to one.

In this latter event the absence of daring smashers, with the fast, close work at the net, made the sport dull to watch, and half of the crowd went over to see the contest between H. L. Doherty and Richard Stevens. Here they found the excitement which they craved, for by playing his steady baseline game, Stevens not only took a set from the Englishman, but came within a single stroke of another. With the score one-all, the game 5 to 4, and the score 40-30, Stevens missed scoring on a fine pass by a few inches, the ball going just that distance outside. Doherty then evened matters without difficulty, and although Stevens won another game, the Englishman went on to win the set 8-4. The next went to him, 8-1, and match was finished.

SIX EVENTS AT NAPA.

JOCKEY TULLETT IN TROUBLE.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.

NAPA, Aug. 22.—Twenty-five hundred spectators today witnessed the Napa Agricultural Fair races. The schools had a holiday, and the merchants closed their stores for the afternoon. There were six events, one of which was a try-out for Venus N., who trotted the mile in 2:204. This preceded the regular programme.

In the first race, the 2:40 trot, Coronado, the favorite, driven by W. G. Durfee, won in three straight heats. The second heat was the most interesting, the horses being bunched from the start to the stretch. Bonnie Direct went against his own record of 2:054, but, made no better than 2:12 the mile, and was beaten. He was upped by Ferdinand, an old runner, who has gone with Flying Jib, Star Pointer and other famous horses in a similar capacity. The local road race, with two entries, was won by Dr. Taylor's car, behind Billy G. with William Spiers of Calistoga, behind Hale, second.

In the last running race, Tullett, who rode Billy Lyons to victory, was upped to the scales, and was under weight. On being led to the scales, he was found to be seven pounds under. The judges promptly declared all bets off, and gave the race to Lodenstar. What followed the juries could not ascertain. That is not yet known, but they state that they will lay him from the Napa track. Summary:

The 2:40-class trotting, purse $700; Coronado won, Corsetus D. second; Bonny third; Vic Direct fourth; time 2:47.

Four and a half furloings selling; Zen won, Madge Simpson second, Wieland third; time 5:58.

One mile: Lodenstar won, Flirtilla second; Billy Lyons disqualified; time 1:42.

MORE ACCIDENTS.

LIPTON IS IN ONE.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.

LONDON, Aug. 22.—(By Atlantic Cable) Sir Thomas Lipton was in an automobile accident while coming to town today from his country house. His two-year-old car, which he was driving himself, skidded on the street cars at Woodgreen, and crashed into the iron railing bordering the road. The car was wrecked and the railing smashed for a considerable distance, but Sir Thomas escaped with a shock and a few bruises.

A special dispatch from Madrid says that advices received there from Tanger announce that the Sultan of Morocco had a dangerous accident while automobilizing near Fez yesterday. The driver lost control of the car, which dashed into a stone wall. As the vehicle was not going fast, the Sultan escaped with a shaking up and a fright.

FURIOUS MOTORING.

NEW YORK CLUBMAN FINED.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.

LONDON, Aug. 22.—(By Atlantic Cable) Rutherford Stuyvesant, the well-known clubman of New York, and the driver of his automobile, were fined yesterday by a Kingston-on-Thames magistrate for furious motoring. A police constable testified that Stuyvesant's car was moving at an unusual quarter of a mile in thirty seconds.

Stuyvesant expressed the opinion that it was not going more than ten miles an hour. The magistrate, however, remarked that he had just had a personal experience of the power of the New York gentleman traveled. On his way to court he encountered Stuyvesant's car rounding a corner, and only his nearness to the curb enabled him to escape being knocked down.

KNICKERBOCKER CLUB.

ON VERGE OF DISSOLUTION.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—Members of the well-known Knickerbocker Athletic Club have decided to take active steps to end the organization from going to pieces, and to that end have authorized President G. S. Whitson to name a committee of ten to confer as to the plan of action to be followed. The idea prevailing now is to change the club from a proprietary one to a members' organization.

This step is a direct result of the suit brought by Andrew J. Lubin against John H. Ballantine and John D. Corbett, with his manager and trainees arrived today, and began to look for training quarters. It is probable that he will choose the place on Price Hill, where Jeffries was in training for his fight with Rubin, which was enjoined.

Over to Ballantine, and according to the way the affairs of the organization stand, it would seem other than a proprietary club. All the inside workings of the club were directed by committees named by members, but in reality the entire management lies on the financial authority of Ballantine.

Ever since its formation, the Knickerbocker has had one trouble after another, and its vicissitudes have been many. Originally it was the famous old Lord Derby Club, but dissension grew and its place was taken by the Picpus Club. Its career was brief, and then came the Knickerbocker. The new life built up a magnificent club, and one time the best athletes in the country were among its members. Harry Corish came from Chicago a few years ago to take the position of athletic director of the club.

LORD DERBY'S SURPRISE.

BEATEN BY THE MONK.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.

READVILLE (Mass.) Aug. 22.—The one great surprise at the Readville track on today's grand circuit card was the appearance of Lord Derby in the 2:07 trot. The surprise was not due to the extent of his running the race, for Geers drove The Monk under the wire ahead of him in two straight heats and won in the first heat, establishing a new record for himself of 2:054, and a new race record for the track. Summary:

Trotting, 2:16 class, purse $3000; Alice Carries, 2:16; Misses; 2:11½; Prince of Wales, 2:11½; Duke of fifth heat not given; Re-elected won the first heat in 2:11½; Mary F. Leyburn won the third heat in 2:11½. Nine others also started.

Trotting, 2:19 class, purse $1000; Julius won three straight heats in 2:054, 2:054, 2:054. Eight others also started.

Trotting, 2:07 class, 2 in 2, purse $3000; The Monk won two heats in 2:054, 2:054; Lord Derby, Dally King and Chain Shot also started.

Trotting, 2:12 class, 2 in 2, purse $1000; Carl Wilkes won two straight heats in 2:054, 2:054. Ten others also started.

PAGE'S YEARLINGS.

JOYNER TO TRAIN THEM.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—"Jack" Joyner, according to a Saratoga special, has just signed a contract to take charge of the development of the thoroughbred yearlings at Sydenham Farm bought this spring. For this he will receive $20,000 a year, the largest amount, it is said, ever paid to a man to train horses. Under the terms of the contract, Joyner will take charge of the racing, rendering the job December, two weeks after the regular racing season is closed.

Racing at Batavia.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.

BUTTE (Mont.) Aug. 22.—Five furlongs: Imelton won, George Palmer second; Hampton third; time 1:01½. Six furlongs: Great Western, 1:02½; 1½ seconds. Missie won, Eleven Bells second; Frank Woods third; time 1:42.

Quarter of a mile: Queen T. won; Judge Thomas second; Populist third.

Five and a half furloings: Charles Lamar won, Gov. John second; Cuban third; time 1:07½.

One and a half furloings: Miss Remsen won, Algarita second; Lauraeta third; time 1:21.

Five and a half furloings: Mimo won, Lady Superba second; Edith Ross third; time 1:09¾.

Saratoga Summary.

SARATOGA (N. Y.) Aug. 22.—Maiden: two-year-olds, five and a half furloings: Payne won, Forward second; Counterparte third; time 1:01½.

One mile: Illusion won, Eleven Bells second; Frank Woods third; time 1:42.

One mile: Queen T. won; Judge Thomas second; Populist third.

Five and a half furloings: Charles Lamar won, Gov. John second; Cuban third; time 1:07½.

One and a half furloings: Miss Remsen won, Algarita second; Lauraeta third; time 1:21.

Five and a half furloings: Mimo won, Lady Superba second; Edith Ross third; time 1:09¾.

CHICAGO.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 22.—The third race of the meet was won by the Cincinnati team landed on Dugibey in the first two innings today and piled up enough runs to win. Attendance 1500. Score:

Cincinnati, 3; hits, 9; errors, 2.

Philadelphia, 2; hits, 6; errors, 0.

Batteries—Dohney and Zimmer; Kitson and Fredrick; Umpire—Irwin.

Second Game.

Pittsburgh, 7; hits, 8; errors, 1.

Brooklyn, 1; hits, 4; errors, 2.

Batteries—Hahn and Bergen; Dugibey and O'Dowd.

Umpire—Jewell.

AMERICAN LEAGUE GAMES.

ST. LOUIS LOSES AGAIN.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 22.—The third race of the meet was won by the Cincinnati team landed on Dugibey in the first two innings today and piled up enough runs to win. Attendance 1500. Score:

Cincinnati, 3; hits, 9; errors, 2.

Philadelphia, 2; hits, 6; errors, 0.

Batteries—Dohney and Zimmer; Kitson and Fredrick; Umpire—Irwin.

CHICAGO.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.

CHICAGO, Aug. 22.—Boston won today by timely hitting. Pittenger's good pitching and costly errors on the part of the locals. Attendance 1400. Score:

Chicago, 2; hits, 8; errors, 2.

Boston, 5; hits, 9; errors, 1.

Batteries—Taylor and King; Pittenger and Moran; Umpire—Jewell.

WESTERN LEAGUE GAMES.

AT DES MOINES.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.

DES MOINES, Aug. 22.—Des Moines, 2; Colorado Springs, 2.

Score: Colorado, 2; hits, 11; errors, 3.

Des Moines, 2; hits, 10; errors, 2.

Batteries—Townsend and Drill; Griffith and McAllister; Umpire—Cantillon.

DETROIT-BALTIMORE.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 22.—The Baltimore four, this today, completely routed Boston four, today, 17-2. The winning team was the third race of the meet, which was effective throughout the day.

The last score came in the ninth on Hogan's double to the Chutes gate.

The last score came in the ninth on Hogan's double to the Chutes gate.

The last score came in the ninth on Hogan's double to the Chutes gate.

The last score came in the ninth on Hogan's double to the Chutes gate.

The last score came in the ninth on Hogan's double to the Chutes gate.

The last score came in the ninth on Hogan's double to the Chutes gate.

The last score came in the ninth on Hogan's double to the Chutes gate.

The last score came in the ninth on Hogan's double to the Chutes gate.

The last score came in the ninth on Hogan's double to the Chutes gate.

The last score came in the ninth on Hogan's double to the Chutes gate.

The last score came in the ninth on Hogan's double to the Chutes gate.

The last score came in the ninth on Hogan's double to the Chutes gate.

The last score came in the ninth on Hogan's double to the Chutes gate.

The last score came in the ninth on Hogan's double to the Chutes gate.

The last score came in the ninth on Hogan's double to the Chutes gate.

The last score came in the ninth on Hogan's double to the Chutes gate.

The last score came in the ninth on Hogan's double to the Chutes gate.

The last score came in the ninth on Hogan's double to the Chutes gate.

The last score came in the ninth on Hogan's double to the Chutes gate.

The last score came in the ninth on Hogan's double to the Chutes gate.

The last score came in the ninth on Hogan's double to the Chutes gate.

The last score came in the ninth on Hogan's double to the Chutes gate.

The last score came in the ninth on Hogan's double to the Chutes gate.

The last score came in the ninth on Hogan's double to the Chutes gate.

The last score came in the ninth on Hogan's double to the Chutes gate.

The last score came in the ninth on Hogan's double to the Chutes gate.

The last score came in the ninth on Hogan's double to the Chutes gate.

The last score came in the ninth on Hogan's double to the Chutes gate.

The last score came in the ninth on Hogan's double to the Chutes gate.

The last score came in the ninth on Hogan's double to the Chutes gate.

The last score came in the ninth on Hogan's double to the Chutes gate.

The last score came in the ninth on Hogan's double to the Chutes gate.

The last score came in the ninth on Hogan's double to the Chutes gate.

The last score came in the ninth on Hogan's double to the Chutes gate.

The last score came in the ninth on Hogan's double to the Chutes gate.

AUGUST 22, 1902.

JOIN THE ESPEE.
President Felton of the Alton Company.

High Reputation as Railway Engineer.

We Trust Deeds—Stock Exchange to Investigate Power Case.

PRESIDENT.

(CONTINUED FROM FIRST PAGE.)

government which had been established in a given district had to be temporarily withdrawn, because of some outbreak, but at last on the Fourth of July that has just passed—the 120th anniversary of our independence—it was possible at the same time for me to declare amnesty throughout the islands and definitely to establish civil rule over all of them excepting the country of the Mohammedan Moros, where the conditions were wholly different. Each inhabitant of the Philippines is now guaranteed his civil and religious rights, his rights to life and happiness, subject only to not infringing upon the rights of others. It is worth noting that already the Philippines people have received a greater share of self-government; that they have more to say as to how they shall be governed than is the case with any people in the Orient which is under European rule. Nor is this all. Congress has, with far-seeing wisdom, heartily supported all that has been done by the Executive. Wise laws for the government of the Philippines have been placed upon the statute books, and under those laws, provision is made for the introduction into the Philippine Islands of a representative government with only the delay necessary to allow for the establishment of definite peace for the taking of a census and the position of president.

In short, we are governing the Filipinos primarily in their interest and for their very great benefit. And we have acted in practical fashion—not trying to lay down rules as to what should be done in the remote and uncertain future, but turning our attention to the instant need of thousands, and meeting that need in the fullest and most complete manner.

It is called to the fact that

for which Felton was sent alone has been accomplished,

the road up to the standard.

Although

immensely increased

and improved

facilities, and

and equipment. Felton is an engineer and expert on

and there is every reason

that bettering railroads

is to taste than running

about the physical improvement of the company.

It is called to the fact that

for which Felton was sent

alone has been accomplished,

the road up to the standard.

Although

immensely increased

and improved

facilities, and

and equipment. Felton is an engineer and expert on

and there is every reason

that bettering railroads

is to taste than running

about the physical improvement of the company.

It is called to the fact that

for which Felton was sent

alone has been accomplished,

the road up to the standard.

Although

immensely increased

and improved

facilities, and

and equipment. Felton is an engineer and expert on

and there is every reason

that bettering railroads

is to taste than running

about the physical improvement of the company.

It is called to the fact that

for which Felton was sent

alone has been accomplished,

the road up to the standard.

Although

immensely increased

and improved

facilities, and

and equipment. Felton is an engineer and expert on

and there is every reason

that bettering railroads

is to taste than running

about the physical improvement of the company.

It is called to the fact that

for which Felton was sent

alone has been accomplished,

the road up to the standard.

Although

immensely increased

and improved

facilities, and

and equipment. Felton is an engineer and expert on

and there is every reason

that bettering railroads

is to taste than running

about the physical improvement of the company.

It is called to the fact that

for which Felton was sent

alone has been accomplished,

the road up to the standard.

Although

immensely increased

and improved

facilities, and

and equipment. Felton is an engineer and expert on

and there is every reason

that bettering railroads

is to taste than running

about the physical improvement of the company.

It is called to the fact that

for which Felton was sent

alone has been accomplished,

the road up to the standard.

Although

immensely increased

and improved

facilities, and

and equipment. Felton is an engineer and expert on

and there is every reason

that bettering railroads

is to taste than running

about the physical improvement of the company.

It is called to the fact that

for which Felton was sent

alone has been accomplished,

the road up to the standard.

Although

immensely increased

and improved

facilities, and

and equipment. Felton is an engineer and expert on

and there is every reason

that bettering railroads

is to taste than running

about the physical improvement of the company.

It is called to the fact that

for which Felton was sent

alone has been accomplished,

the road up to the standard.

Although

immensely increased

and improved

facilities, and

and equipment. Felton is an engineer and expert on

and there is every reason

that bettering railroads

is to taste than running

about the physical improvement of the company.

It is called to the fact that

for which Felton was sent

alone has been accomplished,

the road up to the standard.

Although

immensely increased

and improved

facilities, and

and equipment. Felton is an engineer and expert on

and there is every reason

that bettering railroads

is to taste than running

about the physical improvement of the company.

It is called to the fact that

for which Felton was sent

alone has been accomplished,

the road up to the standard.

Although

immensely increased

and improved

facilities, and

and equipment. Felton is an engineer and expert on

and there is every reason

that bettering railroads

is to taste than running

about the physical improvement of the company.

It is called to the fact that

for which Felton was sent

alone has been accomplished,

THE TIMES-MIRROR COMPANY.

H. G. OTIS.....President and General Manager.
HARRY CHANDLER.....Vice-President and Assistant General Manager.
MARIAN OTIS-CHANDLER.....Secretary.
ALBERT MCFARLAND.....Treasurer.
PUBLISHERS OF

The Los Angeles Times

Daily, Weekly, Sunday, and Weekly Magazine.

Vol. 42, No. 90.

Founded Dec. 4, 1861.
EVERY MORNING IN THE YEAR
Twenty-Five Cents.

NEWS SERVICE.—Full reports of the new Associated Press, covering the globe; from 15,000 telegraphic stations transmitted daily over more than 100,000 miles of leased wires.
TERMS.—Daily—Subscription, $2.00; weekly, $2.50; monthly, $25.00; yearly, $25.00.
SWORN CIRCULATION.—Daily, not average for 1907, 15,250; for 1906, 15,250; for 1905, 15,250; for 1904, 15,250; for 1903, 15,250; for 1902, 15,250.
NET SUNDAY AVERAGE FOR 1907, $5.86.
THE LOS ANGELES TIMES, Room 1, Subscription Department, first floor, Press 1; City Editor and local news rooms, Press 2.
AGENTS.—Eastern Agents, Williams & Lawrence, Nos. 5-6 Tribune Building, New York; 11 Washington street, Chicago; Washington Bureau, 46 Post Building, where the latest copies of THE TIMES may be consulted.

Offices: Times Building First and Broadway

Entered at the Los Angeles Post Office for transmission as mail matter of the second class.

HOW THE TIMES TREATS LABOR.

THE LOS ANGELES TIMES regularly pays to its skilled, reliable and acceptable workmen wages that average from $3.75 to $4.50 per day for time work, and from $4 to $5 per day for piece work. These rates are higher than are paid by any competing newspaper; and another advance has recently been agreed upon. The Times pays larger sums weekly, monthly and yearly for labor than any journal in all the Southwest. Its cash disbursements on this account between August, 1890, and the end of September, 1907, aggregated $1,000,000, and its annual expenditures for labor of all classes, both skilled and unskilled, now average more than $75,000 per year. There never has been any attempt, in any quarter, to deny these specific and telling facts, and the proprietors challenge such denial if made. Not for years has THE TIMES had any trouble with its workmen, who are independent of unions, loyal to their employers and themselves, well satisfied and prosperous. The Times controls its own business in its own way, subject only to the laws of the land; and no interference with that control can be lawfully or justly made. The result of its fixed policy has proven highly beneficial to all concerned, and the justness and correctness of its course have for years past received public approval in most marked and conspicuous ways, the circulation and advertising patronage of the paper steadily and largely outstripping that of all the rival publications.

H. G. OTIS, President and General Manager.

Since no attempt whatever has ever been made in any quarter to refute, or even dispute, the accuracy of the foregoing authoritative statements, our defeated malignants are estopped; and the public is amply warranted in giving no credence to contemporary hostile assaults upon THE TIMES management in the matter of its relations to its workmen, or vice versa. Falsehood must yield to truth.

BUSINESS.

The credits exchanged at the Los Angeles clearinghouse yesterday aggregated $62,423,535, as against $32,557,44 for the corresponding period of last year. Yesterday's figures were $81,056 less than those for the day before, indicating the usual Friday dullness before Saturday activity.

Big bags were competing in the Chicago grain pit yesterday to unload on outsiders, with several fluctuations as a result. Over a million bushels of September corn were turned over to shorts. The New York stock market closed considerably higher than the night before.

GIVE US A WINNER.

At this time, when Republican policies are dominating in the nation, when the party in the nation is a unit, when success in the forthcoming national campaign is assured all along the line, if decent politics is done in the several States of the Union, it would be folly—the very peak of asinity—for the Republicans of California to jeopardize the position of this State in the Republican column by making a foolish, weak and impolitic nomination for Governor.

The renomination of Henry T. Gage would rip the party in California from stem to stern. It would bring about such a condition of affairs that in the next national campaign we would have a factional fight on hand, instead of a united pressing forward to meet the foe—it would mean the loss of California to Roosevelt, who is certain to be the Republican candidate for President, if he lives until the day of the next national convention of his great party.

Therefore, success in the coming State campaign is all essential, if for no more serious reasons. But there are other reasons—and they are serious reasons.

We want good government, clean government, a government of clean men and good methods, a government of dignity, a government of true economy, a government free of scandals, a government free of bosses and bosses, a government for the benefit of some particular family. We want a government free of nepotism, a government free of brothers-in-law, a government that is not in the business of making furniture with prison labor to be distributed among the chums and associates of State officials. We want our State prison run without diapers, dolls, silk nightgowns, fastened drawers for lady's wear, mahogany bedsteads bearing the letter "G" in relief, as the furniture of the first Napoleon bore the letter "N" and the dear deus. We want a government run for the benefit of the public and not as if public office was a private snap. We want a Governor who can be reached without having to run the gauntlet of Dan Kerans. We want a Governor who has a sense of dignity, kindness, savoir faire, width between the eyes. We want a Governor who is not run by a Dan Burns or Bill Herrin of the Southern Pacific Company. We want "a government of the people, for the people and by the people," and not a government of the Burns, the Herrins and the Gages for the Aguirres and their like!

And such a government we can have if the big majority in the forthcoming State convention of the Republican party will but get together for the common good and defeat the gang that has been ruling with a high hand, and ruining as it ruled.

The opposition to Gov. Gage has a net majority so large that it can dominate the convention without the very least shadow of a question. It is for

GIVE US A WINNER!

A weak and wobbly Gage organ sneezes at the idea that nominations are forced in political conventions and decides that such creatures as Dan Burns, in their ramifications, but record the will of the people. What better! There is no man of sense in this State but knows that the Dan Burns stock in trade is to secure a good strong nucleus in a convention, and then, by trading it from h—l to breakfast, force nominations that are in no sense the best that could be made, or such as will command the full party vote. As a case in point, let The Times recall the nomination of George Arnold for membership on the State Board of Equalization, four years ago. The opposition to that candidate had him defeated, but at the same time Burns was sent for with a gun. He came upon the floor of the district convention and by the methods with which he "does politics" the nomination of Arnold was crowded through. Result: The people of the Fourth District rose in revolt against Arnold, and, despite the fact that every other man on the Republican State ticket was elected, he went down to defeat under a tidal wave of more than four thousand majority for the opposing candidate! Conventions may be manipulated, but the people, never!

The war of the North Atlantic is on. Spies are abroad in the land, the Pillbury fleet menaces the coast, and Admiral Higgins is passing sleepless nights for fear Pillbury will gobble up Boston and carry off Ed. Atkinson. Lull off everything else, Pillbury, but in the name of high Heaven, leave us our Eddie!

Our Uncle Sam has discovered that the long, slim gun is a better shooter than the sawed-off article. The hunters of Kentucky knew their business.

MORE EXPLANATIONS NEEDED.
As the evidence develops in the trial of the first of the Gage libel suits that has come into court—and the case has, as yet, scarcely begun—the result cannot be regarded as satisfactory or pleasing to those friends of the Governor who have been all along loudly proclaiming that he is an injured innocent, the victim of a diabolical conspiracy on part of a certain alleged "triumvirate," and that, as soon as his wicked traducers could be persuaded or compelled to come into court, he, the Governor, would come forth from the ordeal shining resplendent, like gold purified by fire, while his accusers would be forced to hunt their holes and hide their heads in shame.

The Governor has not yet seized an opportunity to confirm the suggestion, recently made by The Times, that the city of more assorted crates, boxes and bundles of assorted furniture, shipped from San Quentin to Downey, were designed for sale at a fancy fair to be held for the benefit of discharged convicts. His continued silence on this subject must inevitably force some of those who have had confidence in him to the belief that this large assortment of miscellaneous merchandise, produced at the expense of the State, was not intended for such purpose, but for personal or family use; in this case it would, of course, be easy to understand why the Governor should have avoided a public investigation, should have held a private whitewashing investigation of his own, and after bringing his libel suit should have sought to further check a full and fair investigation by endeavoring to cause the trial to be held at a point 500 miles away from the place where the evidences and the witnesses are.

It looks as if Gov. Gage would have a lot more explaining to do, if he hopes to convince a majority of the Republican State Convention that he is a proper man to head the Republican ticket of the great commonwealth of California.

Meantime it is the right, duty and policy of Republican delegates having the interest of the State and the party at heart, to vote on the safe side; that is to say, to vote for a candidate for Governor who is not handicapped as Gov. Gage is.

THE COUNTY TICKET.
The Republican County Convention having completed its labors, some mention of its principal nominations is possible, pertinent and proper at this time and place.

THE COUNTY TICKET.

The Republican County Convention having completed its labors, some mention of its principal nominations is possible, pertinent and proper at this time and place.

THE COUNTY TICKET.

The four incumbents of the judicial office, Alien, Shaw, Smith and Cory, were renominated, the latter "by the skin of his teeth." Judge Cory is a fair lawyer and a conscientious judge, patient, impartial and courteous, though not of exceptional ability. Judge Shaw is recognized as a good lawyer, and his honesty is admitted, but he is inclined to be more precipitate and partisan than deliberate in his make-up; briefly and bluntly, he is more jerky than judicial. Alien and Smith have made their records and all four will pretty surely be elected.

White, for Sheriff, who beat Hammel and McLain, is fair timber, and his nomination was in the nature of a promotion from a subordinate office.

Keyes, for Clerk, who was nominated over both Francisco and Robinson, cannot be counted as a distinguished, and then, by effecting trades and swaps among the friends of minor candidates, to swing the main body of the convention for the bosses' man. And remember this, that the bosses are never for a man who is not with them! They are not seeking out strong, able, independent men to exalt to high position in the State. They want candidates who will stand in for the "programme," who will do the dirty act in appointment of subordinate officers, who will do as the bosses want them to do.

Two of the witnesses examined on Thursday were officials of San Quentin penitentiary—one a brother of the warden—and therefore may be presumed not to be prejudiced against the Governor, to say the least. Indeed, they testified most unwillingly—not at all like witnesses for a man whom they knew to be entirely innocent—their admissions having to be wrung from them by repeated efforts. The first of these, Henry Emslie, foreman of the carpenter shop at St. Quentin, testified that—

"Furniture of various sorts had been manufactured at the penitentiary and delivered to persons not connected with the prison, and that many handsome pieces had been made for prison officials.

Emslie testified that a handsome bedstead with the initial "G" carved on the headboard, had been made.

Emslie stated that it was an inevitable rule that when furniture or other commodities were made at the prison for use outside of the penitentiary the raw materials paid for by the persons for whom the goods were delivered. He stated that three bedsteads, three book-cases, several chifforoles, one dozen dining-room chairs, eight frames for Turkish chairs, two extension tables, one center-table, two inlaid tables and several other pieces of furniture had been made in his shop.

White, for Auditor, overcame the principal opponent, Bostwick, and will hold up his end of the running.

Pasadena and a large field besides shouted in loud tones of voice for Hartwell for Recorder, and got him without difficulty. Capt. Fredericks, for District Attorney, won over Oliver, his principal competitor, whose success was expected. He accepted his defeat, however, in good part, and will go right on fighting Republican battles, "all same as before." Fredericks is a soldier, and a lawyer with experience in the District Attorney's office. He ought to win, easily, over his Democratic opponent, who failed to explain how the requisitions for the shop in question came to be in his book.

On being recalled, Emslie named twenty convicts who worked in the so-called "warden's shop." He remembered that three couches were made for Mr. Aguirre. For one bedstead he said the warden paid the cost of the mahogany, the hardware coming out of the prison shop. The witness also admitted having made a dozen redwood tables for a saloon near the prison. He did not know who he furnished them, but might have done it on his own responsibility.

In payment for drinks, perhaps? A new way to liquidate old debts. But what can you expect in view of the example set by his superiors?

Joseph Aguirre, the warden's brother, testified that he knew the convicts were carving a rosewood set of furniture for the warden. He said he had never seen a bed with the letter "G" carved on it. But then, the day before, the same witness had testified that he did not know what was going on in the loft of the carpenter's shop.

These statements, be it remembered, are sworn to in court by witnesses who have every reason to shield the Governor, in all possible ways, and the news is reported in the columns of a paper that is a "thick-and-thin" defender of Gov. Gage.

It is of small use for the foreman of the carpenter shop to attempt to show that the hardwood employed in some of the furniture—not the hardware—was paid for by the party receiving it. In the case of an artistic piece of furniture, the value of the raw lumber cuts but a small figure in comparison with that of the labor and "fixings."

Let it also be remembered that, years ago, the State Legislature, by law, forbade the manufacture of any articles at San Quentin, for sale, except jute, this being done at the instance of the labor unions, which objected to the competition of prison-made furniture. It is true the law says "for sale," but it is not to be presumed, for a minute, that the Legislature contemplated the employment of a score of convicts in making expensive furniture for presentation to all kinds of influential people, from Governors to saloon-keepers.

The Governor has not yet seized an opportunity to confirm the suggestion, recently made by The Times, that the city of more assorted crates, boxes and bundles of assorted furniture, shipped from San Quentin to Downey, were designed for sale at a fancy fair to be held for the benefit of discharged convicts. His continued silence on this subject must inevitably force some of those who have had confidence in him to the belief that this large assortment of miscellaneous merchandise, produced at the expense of the State, was not intended for such purpose, but for personal or family use;

in this case it would, of course, be easy to understand why the Governor should have avoided a public investigation, should have held a private whitewashing investigation of his own, and after bringing his libel suit should have sought to further check a full and fair investigation by endeavoring to cause the trial to be held at a point 500 miles away from the place where the evidences and the witnesses are.

Savage, if elected, will take the chance of his life to redeem things.

In the Thirty-sixth District Ben W. Hahn of Pasadena is the nominee for the Senate, winning over Willis by a few votes. Hahn is a reputable lawyer, whose younger brother is the attorney of the Anti-Saloon League. Even this fact will be used against him by the Democrats, who will probably inject into the contest that unique and various statesman, "El Hutch." Possibly Willis would have been the stronger man before the people.

In the Thirty-eighth District "Cornelius" Pendleton was nominated for Senator over Haas and Lewis. This was a nomination not fit to be made, and Pendleton should be defeated by a clean Republican who may yet be brought into the race through the process of petition under the law.

The nominees for Assemblmen in the several districts from the Sixty-seventh to the Seventy-fifth, inclusive, are: John A. Goodrich of Pasadena; W. A. Johnston of San Dimas; E. W. Camp of Sierra Madre; W. H. Kelso of Ingleside; P. A. Stanton of West Thirty-first street, city; H. S. G. McCartney of Alvarado street; J. P. Francisco of Trenton street; F. W. House of Downey avenue, and Henry E. Carter of Sherman street.

With the exception of Stanton and Carter, these are fair selections, and will likely be successful to succeed at the polls.

Stanton and Carter should have been improved upon by delegates to Assemblemen conventions seeking representative men to send to Sacramento.

Johnston is in the Sixty-eighth District.

Overcame Broughton of Pomona, the dummy author of Billy Dunn's bugling and disruptuous primary-election law. It will be recalled when Broughton was questioned about the bill, pending its passage through the Assembly, he showed that he knew more about its provisions, and the effect thereof, than a wild porcupine knows about sidepockets. Johnston is a young, active and intelligent man, a fruit farmer of San Dimas, and ought to prove a winner.

For Supervisors, Longden in the First District was renominated, and "Al" Graham was nominated in the Third District over Field, the incumbent. Longden is a good man, who showed the nerve to refuse to vote proscriptively in the Board of Supervisors on the proposition to place a bronze memorial statue of the late Senator Stephen M. White in the Courthouse grounds, which was presented, free, as an evidence of the respect and affection of his fellow-citizens. Longden deserves reelection.

For Township Justice, James was defeated, to the surprise of his friends, including many lawyers who entertain a high opinion of his ability and impartiality on the bench or in the inferior court. The nominee, however, is an officer of experience and upright character in the person of Senator Stephen M. White in the Courthouse grounds, which was presented, free, as an evidence of the respect and affection of his fellow-citizens. Longden deserves reelection.

For Sheriff, Hammel and McLain, who were renominated, the latter "by the skin of his teeth."

For Clerk, who beat Hartwell and McLain, is fair timber, and his nomination was in the nature of a promotion from a subordinate office.

Keyes, for Auditor, overcame the principal opponent, Bostwick, and will hold up his end of the running.

Pasadena and a large field besides shouted in loud tones of voice for Hartwell for Recorder, and got him without difficulty. Capt. Fredericks, for District Attorney, won over Oliver, his principal competitor, whose success was expected. He accepted his defeat, however, in good part, and will go right on fighting Republican battles, "all same as before."

White, for Auditor, overcame the principal opponent, Bostwick, and will hold up his end of the running.

For Sheriff, Hammel and McLain, who were renominated, the latter "by the skin of his teeth."

For Clerk, who beat Hartwell and McLain, is fair timber, and his nomination was in the nature of a promotion from a subordinate office.

Keyes, for Auditor, overcame the principal opponent, Bostwick, and will hold up his end of the running.

For Sheriff, Hammel and McLain, who were renominated, the latter "by the skin of his teeth."

For Clerk, who beat Hartwell and McLain, is fair timber, and his nomination was in the nature of a promotion from a subordinate office.

Keyes, for Auditor, overcame the principal opponent, Bostwick, and will hold up his end of the running.

For Sheriff, Hammel and McLain, who were renominated, the latter "by the skin of his teeth."

For Clerk, who beat Hartwell and McLain, is fair timber, and his nomination was in the nature of a promotion from a subordinate office.

Keyes, for Auditor, overcame the principal opponent, Bostwick, and will hold up his end of the running.

For Sheriff, Hammel and McLain, who were renominated, the latter "by the skin of his teeth."

For Clerk, who beat Hartwell and McLain, is fair timber, and his nomination was in the nature of a promotion from a subordinate office.

&lt;p

THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

Last evening the Charter Revision Committee took measure to hasten the completion of its work and agreed to the report on fire department.

A petition from Seventh street to have the wires of the Home Telephone Company put under ground was denied yesterday.

Small boys who stole a tent in which to go camping are on trial in the Police Court.

Jackson Higgins of Monrovia was examined by Justice James yesterday for taking a pot shot at a constable. He was bound over for trial in the Superior Court, bonds being fixed at $500.

A complaint issued yesterday charging Albert Bell, son of Maj. Horace Bell, with insanity.

An insane complaint was also issued for a girl named Fannie Augustine, who thinks she is in heaven.

AT THE CITY HALL.

CHARTER REVISIONISTS TO GET A MOVE ON.

COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO APPORTION WORK AND MEETINGS.

Report on Fire Department Agreed Upon After Two Night Sessions and Decrees of Unimportant Amendments—Arrival of the Mayor the Only Daylight Event at the Municipal Palace.

The Charter Revision Committee last night concluded discussing and amending the latter half of the report of the Committee on Fire Department, which provides provisions for superannuated firemen, compensation for disabled firemen, suspension for the dependents of those who die in the service. The report was then referred back to the committee for engrossment, to be returned at the next meeting for final action.

The most important action of the evening was in the direction of expediting the work of the committee, so that the charter may be ready for submission to the voters at the regular city election next December. A Committee on Ways and Means, consisting of Messrs. Finlayson, Haas and Frank, was appointed with instructions to apportion the work yet to be done, and make estimates of the time required, so that if necessary the main body can meet more frequently than once a week. The report yet to be considered is from the following committees: Boundaries, Legislative, Executive, Judiciary, Administration, Finance, Revenue and Taxation, Engineering, Public Works and Streets, Education, Library, Parks, Health, Waterworks and a final report from the Committee on Public Utilities. The chairman of each of these committees is to be notified to have his report ready by next Friday, that an accurate estimate of the work in hand may be made.

The committee on fire department was inaugurated by Joseph Scott at the very beginning, when the various members began interrogating him about details of the report of the Fire Department Commission, of which he is chairman. Scott excused himself, saying: "We are never going to get through this if we go at this business this way." This is a very ordinary report; there are no special characteristics or customs, and it has been thrown over in the police report. We have been two nights on it already, and with such slow progress on such a simple report what will happen to us when we take up the other reports? An entirely new departure and involve weighty questions of law and policy? I want to once more suggest that we will have to get a hustle on or take a longer time for the work. Here it is the last week of August, and we are supposed to have this all done by October."

The report finished last night came from the sub-committee of which Scott is chairman, two weeks ago, and has been the subject of the last two meetings. Last night the latter half was disposed of after two hours spent in making unimportant amendments, which aimed at correcting ambiguities or ungrammatical phraseology and removing faults in punctuation over distribution of pension funds. A section was added providing for the deduction of 2 per cent. of the pension fund to be used for the pension fund, and it is intended also to change the report on the police department so as to make the payments into the pension fund 2 per cent. of the salary of the officer, instead of 2 per month. This would make the payment in proportion with the benefits. The Board of Fire Commissioners is given supervision and authority over the dispensation of the fund.

"Nothing Doing" in Daytime.

During daylight hours the various departments of the City Hall yesterday were as desolate as they have been since the opening of the Republican National Convention. The only event outside of the arrival of the Mayor about 4 o'clock and the levee following, was the arrival of the Board of Public Works, with Messrs. Allen McLain and Bowen present. Walter Hayes appeared in behalf of the residents of East Seventh street, who petitioned to have the Home Telephone Company be compelled to lay underground wires in under-ground conduits on that thoroughfare. As the poles are already up and the street being prepared for pavement, it was decided that the petitioners were little too slow, and the petition was laid over without action.

An Old Long Insurance Agent

Or someone's insurance, deriving recompence for his services, should consider a general agency contract with the Conservative Life and Accident Health policy. Why work for another agent when you can work for a company? Home office building, Los Angeles.

Kite Made of Grapefruit.

A tonic and stomach corrector. Try a navel.

"THE CRIME PROBLEM" will be discussed by the president of the New York State Prison Association, in an article in the first part of "Marinette, St. Vincent and Danish West Indies," and other parts to follow.

If you haven't visited Mammoth Cave recently, you are invited to take the trip now. It is described in the front page of the Times Magazine of Sunday, August 26.

A WOMAN'S venturesome journey in Japan will be graphically described in the Times Magazine of the coming Sunday.

FOR Los Angeles reality, see Altho Eros

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

"D-E PEEKLES" WERE THE WHOLE THING.

OLD JACK HIGGINS' LAWYER SAYS HE COULDN'T MISS.

Jewish Girl has Insane Ideas She is in Heaven and Wants to Wear Her Best Clothes All the Time—Her Father Says She Mustn't.

The usual ante-election scramble of foreign-born citizens to come under the flag has been taking place. Dossens and dossens of citizenship every day in the Superior Court.

One who came into court, brought his son along, both going to take on the new responsibilities at the same time. The old man was very much worried about the son; he was afraid he would not be able to answer the court's questions.

He cautioned him all the way down the hall and stopped him at the door of the courtroom. Gave him one more pointer.

While the court was examining his son he kept trying to give him frantic signs behind the judge's back.

The man was swimming.

When it came the old man tried to ask the judge if he was the United States Senator elected. The old man hemmed and stammered and got so rattled he made a rank fizzle of the examination. So he marched out a very crestfallen citizen of old England alongside of a newly-created citizen of Uncle Sam.

Some of the aspiring candidates for citizenship are specially coached for the occasion. One old Dutchman was warned that the people are the whole thing over here.

"Who elects the President?" he asked.

"Da peebles," he growled.

"How are Senators elected?"

"How are the courts constituted?"

The old Dutchman felt himself swimming in deeper water but he glared belligerently at the Judge and the court.

"How is the Governor elected?" he asked.

The old German grunted and stared and grumbled down in his throat.

"Der Goferner," he snorted.

He cleared his throat.

"In a preliminary effort," "Vell der Goferner."

(Reflectively) "Der Goferner—"

(With growing alarm) "Der Goferner—"

(Dull despair) "Der Goferner—"

Without another remark he turned and walked sadly out, muttering "Der Goferner."

They spotted a fine tent, out along the Redondo road, propped up Saturday. On Sunday they stole a bicycle from the shop of R. C. Hallinan, at Washington and Main streets, and rode it until they cast their opales upon the horse and buggy of a plaus man, name E. J. Thorne, hatched at the rig while Mr. Thorne was engaged in his devotions, and drove away where they had spotted the tent. Loading the tent into the buggy they drove off to the corner of Main and South Figueroa street, where they set it up and prepared to spend the night.

After it had become dark, they drove to the city and railed a small grocery store, supplying themselves with the necessities of life.

The next day they moved their tent farther from the city, locating it on a piece of vacant ground covered with a rank growth of very high weeds, by which was almost impossible to pass.

The next day they made excursions into the city on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights, raiding two more grocery stores, and attempting a third, and were prepared for a good long outfit.

By this time the detectives were on their trail, and on Thursday night Detective Kelly, it was the 19th, found them in a tent, waiting for their return after another night's absence.

"Yes, of course," said the secretary apologetically, "excuse me, we just thought that it was queer, though just that the accident happened to your poor father, the section foreman, nearly ten years before that road was built."

Mr. John Brown smiled a sickly smile and began to write on Stuart showing over the customary blank for him to sign.

"Sign here, and we will give your case due attention," said Mr. Stuart.

"Yes," said John Brown, smirking.

"Bore about the road, ay?" said the unhappy Brown, looking at the other with deep reproach. "It is burned into my memory."

"Yes, of course," said the secretary apologetically, "excuse me, we just thought that it was queer, though just that the accident happened to your poor father, the section foreman, nearly ten years before that road was built."

Mr. John Brown smiled a sickly smile and began to write on Stuart showing over the customary blank for him to sign.

"Sign here, and we will give your case due attention," said Mr. Stuart.

"Yes," said John Brown, smirking.

"Bore about the road, ay?" said the unhappy Brown, looking at the other with deep reproach. "It is burned into my memory."

"Yes, of course," said the secretary apologetically, "excuse me, we just thought that it was queer, though just that the accident happened to your poor father, the section foreman, nearly ten years before that road was built."

Mr. John Brown smiled a sickly smile and began to write on Stuart showing over the customary blank for him to sign.

"Sign here, and we will give your case due attention," said Mr. Stuart.

"Yes," said John Brown, smirking.

"Bore about the road, ay?" said the unhappy Brown, looking at the other with deep reproach. "It is burned into my memory."

"Yes, of course," said the secretary apologetically, "excuse me, we just thought that it was queer, though just that the accident happened to your poor father, the section foreman, nearly ten years before that road was built."

Mr. John Brown smiled a sickly smile and began to write on Stuart showing over the customary blank for him to sign.

"Sign here, and we will give your case due attention," said Mr. Stuart.

"Yes," said John Brown, smirking.

"Bore about the road, ay?" said the unhappy Brown, looking at the other with deep reproach. "It is burned into my memory."

"Yes, of course," said the secretary apologetically, "excuse me, we just thought that it was queer, though just that the accident happened to your poor father, the section foreman, nearly ten years before that road was built."

Mr. John Brown smiled a sickly smile and began to write on Stuart showing over the customary blank for him to sign.

"Sign here, and we will give your case due attention," said Mr. Stuart.

"Yes," said John Brown, smirking.

"Bore about the road, ay?" said the unhappy Brown, looking at the other with deep reproach. "It is burned into my memory."

"Yes, of course," said the secretary apologetically, "excuse me, we just thought that it was queer, though just that the accident happened to your poor father, the section foreman, nearly ten years before that road was built."

Mr. John Brown smiled a sickly smile and began to write on Stuart showing over the customary blank for him to sign.

"Sign here, and we will give your case due attention," said Mr. Stuart.

"Yes," said John Brown, smirking.

"Bore about the road, ay?" said the unhappy Brown, looking at the other with deep reproach. "It is burned into my memory."

"Yes, of course," said the secretary apologetically, "excuse me, we just thought that it was queer, though just that the accident happened to your poor father, the section foreman, nearly ten years before that road was built."

Mr. John Brown smiled a sickly smile and began to write on Stuart showing over the customary blank for him to sign.

"Sign here, and we will give your case due attention," said Mr. Stuart.

"Yes," said John Brown, smirking.

"Bore about the road, ay?" said the unhappy Brown, looking at the other with deep reproach. "It is burned into my memory."

"Yes, of course," said the secretary apologetically, "excuse me, we just thought that it was queer, though just that the accident happened to your poor father, the section foreman, nearly ten years before that road was built."

Mr. John Brown smiled a sickly smile and began to write on Stuart showing over the customary blank for him to sign.

"Sign here, and we will give your case due attention," said Mr. Stuart.

"Yes," said John Brown, smirking.

"Bore about the road, ay?" said the unhappy Brown, looking at the other with deep reproach. "It is burned into my memory."

"Yes, of course," said the secretary apologetically, "excuse me, we just thought that it was queer, though just that the accident happened to your poor father, the section foreman, nearly ten years before that road was built."

Mr. John Brown smiled a sickly smile and began to write on Stuart showing over the customary blank for him to sign.

"Sign here, and we will give your case due attention," said Mr. Stuart.

"Yes," said John Brown, smirking.

"Bore about the road, ay?" said the unhappy Brown, looking at the other with deep reproach. "It is burned into my memory."

"Yes, of course," said the secretary apologetically, "excuse me, we just thought that it was queer, though just that the accident happened to your poor father, the section foreman, nearly ten years before that road was built."

Mr. John Brown smiled a sickly smile and began to write on Stuart showing over the customary blank for him to sign.

"Sign here, and we will give your case due attention," said Mr. Stuart.

"Yes," said John Brown, smirking.

"Bore about the road, ay?" said the unhappy Brown, looking at the other with deep reproach. "It is burned into my memory."

"Yes, of course," said the secretary apologetically, "excuse me, we just thought that it was queer, though just that the accident happened to your poor father, the section foreman, nearly ten years before that road was built."

Mr. John Brown smiled a sickly smile and began to write on Stuart showing over the customary blank for him to sign.

"Sign here, and we will give your case due attention," said Mr. Stuart.

"Yes," said John Brown, smirking.

"Bore about the road, ay?" said the unhappy Brown, looking at the other with deep reproach. "It is burned into my memory."

"Yes, of course," said the secretary apologetically, "excuse me, we just thought that it was queer, though just that the accident happened to your poor father, the section foreman, nearly ten years before that road was built."

Mr. John Brown smiled a sickly smile and began to write on Stuart showing over the customary blank for him to sign.

"Sign here, and we will give your case due attention," said Mr. Stuart.

"Yes," said John Brown, smirking.

"Bore about the road, ay?" said the unhappy Brown, looking at the other with deep reproach. "It is burned into my memory."

"Yes, of course," said the secretary apologetically, "excuse me, we just thought that it was queer, though just that the accident happened to your poor father, the section foreman, nearly ten years before that road was built."

Mr. John Brown smiled a sickly smile and began to write on Stuart showing over the customary blank for him to sign.

"Sign here, and we will give your case due attention," said Mr. Stuart.

"Yes," said John Brown, smirking.

"Bore about the road, ay?" said the unhappy Brown, looking at the other with deep

BIBLE LESSONS
FOR SUNDAY-SCHOOL TEACHERS AND OTHER BIBLE STUDENTS.

Prepared for The Times by J. S. Kirtley.

For Sunday, August 24, 1902.

No. III, 28; xiv, 4: "Report of the Spies."

THE CONNECTION.

In this lesson told of breaking the commandments at the expense of God's word. In the way they were taught, it was the courage of the people that God had promised it, and knew from experience what God could do. He profited by experience, while the others did not. True courage comes from a sense of doing God's will, having His support. He was not rash or blind. He was confident, for he had reason to be. He advised an immediate march into the land. Had they done so, the race would have been won again at having nothing to do with the plague broke out among many.

The one of the few bottles of Compound perfume made him feel good and happy to the bone.

Nourishing the nerves, it took fresh tones, and dissolved all the tension.

Paine's Oily Compound is vigorous, and helps his nerves when Paine's Oily Compound is used; it truly "makes sick people well."

"Let the GOLD DUST talk."

"The Lord said, 'I will bring you to the land of the children of men, and all the children of the wilderness of Paran, brought back wept and mourned, and they said unto them the friends of the people wept that night. (3.) And all the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron; and the whole congregation said unto unto the land whither we had come up, and surely it fowls of heaven, and honey, and oil is the land of Egypt; or would we had come over to see the land? And wherefore doth Jehovah bring us up into this land, to fall by the sword? Our fathers in Egypt were not a prey; were it not better for us to return into Egypt?' (4.) And they said one to another, 'Let us make a captain, and let us return into Egypt.'

The cowards prevailed, because the people were cowardly and lazy and faithless. The behavior of the people was worse than childish. After Jesus told us when they were to be born, they started out, they were to be born; and study the quality of their products learn the ways of the people. "A few, or many, of cities they lived in, in tents or strongholds, report embraced all these things, but afterward two conflicting interpretations.

There very fine soil, and some specimens of the fruit trees and vines and figs. The fruits were brought from a place "Sheek" which means "cluster," they grew in such large bunches that the cluster was tied to a pole by two men. Kite tells us that a grape weighing nine pounds was found at Nectopolis, vine, in 1519, and Jesus went to the Marquis of Rock-four laborers, who carried the vine, and did not break it. Milk and honey were important articles of diet, "bowing with milk and meat a land furnishing the best of all kinds of fruit and timber. So far it was unanimous in their report.

Further on we read that God made a proportion to blot out this nation from the earth, from Moses himself, but that the remnant man professed that he would not; that God granted their wish, and declared that no one left Egypt after he was 40 years old should enter the land, except Caleb and Joshua. They were turned back to wander forty years for the forty days the spies spent in the land.

WHAT THE MASTERS SAY.

From the frequent mention in the Bible of grapes, figs, pomegranates, olives, dates, apples and almonds, one might think that the land does not produce other fruit, but in the neighborhood of Damascus, for example, you will find oranges, lemons, citrons, pears, peaches, apricots, plums, etc. Apparently, strawberries, raspberries, cherries and gooseberries do not thrive, although I have seen the attempt made to grow them. The best and most popular among the Greeks and southern Indians, where they have existed in Palestine for 300 years before the Exodus, still exist in the land.

They were great warlike nations, they were the Canaanites, and they were in good degree by those nations. Even worship of God came to be the heathen religion of the neighboring tribes.

Doubtless one of the keenest pang experienced by the lost will be the recollection of the time when there was but a step between them and salvation and feeling fear, or some sin, or some wrong, or some trouble from taking it. What an army of Sunday school scholars are encamped at Kadesh-barnea! Whether they shall cross the Jordan, or die in the wilderness will depend very largely upon the impression which we gain of the Christian life.—Henson.

TRUTH TO IMPRESS.

(1.) That God allows us to examine into everything, but requires us to count on Him.

(2.) That we find what corresponds to our feelings and wishes.

(3.) That God expects us to see Himself, as well as the difficulties in the way.

(4.) That we are responsible for other as well as for ourselves.

(5.) That cowardice is a sin, and always leads to other sins.

(6.) That if God had taken those who are in them, would soon have given it a hand of barrenness and gloom.

(7.) That faith in God is the cure for every ill.

(8.) That God's forgiveness is one of the wonders of His dealings with us.

Spœdthrift Lenders.

A London clergyman complains of the decrease of thrift among the working people of London. Though they are doing well for the present, they are not putting money into bank.

They are in fact saving less in good times than they formerly saved in bad ones. If they put money into the savings bank during the winter, they take it out in summer. They must have a large sum to keep them.

The savings-bank account diminishes in proportion as the active enjoyment of life is increased.—Bradford Observer.

He did so as to form a new world where they were spoiled.

He was sober, for it relieved the people of their ill—their ill—their sins.

He was a fertile soil, and in itself a good seed. He did not understand us.

He took them

and we were in their church. He did it before they were spoiled.

He was sober, for it relieved

the number of the people.

We were in our own sight as

the people.

He took them

and we were in their

church.

He did it before

they were spoiled.

He was sober, for it relieved

the number of the people.

We were in our own sight as

the people.

He took them

and we were in their

church.

He did it before

they were spoiled.

He was sober, for it relieved

the number of the people.

We were in our own sight as

the people.

He took them

and we were in their

church.

He did it before

they were spoiled.

He was sober, for it relieved

the number of the people.

We were in our own sight as

the people.

He took them

and we were in their

church.

He did it before

they were spoiled.

He was sober, for it relieved

the number of the people.

We were in our own sight as

the people.

He took them

and we were in their

church.

He did it before

they were spoiled.

He was sober, for it relieved

the number of the people.

We were in our own sight as

the people.

He took them

and we were in their

church.

He did it before

they were spoiled.

He was sober, for it relieved

the number of the people.

We were in our own sight as

the people.

He took them

and we were in their

church.

He did it before

they were spoiled.

He was sober, for it relieved

the number of the people.

We were in our own sight as

the people.

He took them

and we were in their

church.

He did it before

they were spoiled.

He was sober, for it relieved

the number of the people.

We were in our own sight as

the people.

He took them

and we were in their

church.

He did it before

they were spoiled.

He was sober, for it relieved

the number of the people.

We were in our own sight as

the people.

He took them

and we were in their

church.

He did it before

they were spoiled.

He was sober, for it relieved

the number of the people.

We were in our own sight as

the people.

He took them

and we were in their

church.

He did it before

they were spoiled.

He was sober, for it relieved

the number of the people.

We were in our own sight as

the people.

He took them

and we were in their

church.

He did it before

they were spoiled.

He was sober, for it relieved

the number of the people.

We were in our own sight as

the people.

He took them

and we were in their

church.

He did it before

they were spoiled.

He was sober, for it relieved

the number of the people.

We were in our own sight as

the people.

He took them

THE CITY IN BRIEF.

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Six-Story Office Block.

The plans are being prepared for a six-story office building, that is to be erected on the lot, 40x50 feet, on the east side of Spring street, between Second and Third, which was recently purchased by Robert McGarvin and Mrs. E. E. White, by N. W. Stowell. Some surprises.

H. R. Gantley, who rooms at No. 419 South Main street, reports at the Police Station, where the room he was entered the night before and some of his clothes were taken. Mrs. Lizzie Burton, living at No. 1023 San Pedro street, reports the theft from her barn on the same night that the man dined at McGarvin's.

To Bridge Arroyo de las Pecas.

The end of the Pasadena Short Line upon the completion of that road will come down to the Brooklyn Avenue line. Material is on the ground for the construction of a concrete bridge of two arches across the Arroyo de las Pecas, from Gardo to the Brooklyn line, and a large force will be placed on its construction within a few days.

Runaway on Broadway.

A team of fractious horses belonging to E. D. Cheesborough, manager of the O. K. Transfer Company, ran away on Broadway near Seventh street yesterday at noon, and collided with a Grand Avenue car. The horses reared and dashed into a buggy owned by O. C. Logan, breaking one of its hind wheels. Cheesborough received some cuts on his face and his wagon was badly smashed up.

Leg Broken Under Pilot.

William F. Cribbs, an employe of the Santa Fe Railroad Company at Flagstaff, Ariz., was brought to this city this morning with a broken leg, the result of a misstep Wednesday evening while on duty at the Flagstaff turntable. He had stepped for the fender of the road car, the wheel of which was thrown under the pilot and carried him in that position for a yard or two, but fortunately did not come in contact with the wheel. He was removed to the Sisters Hospital.

"Short Line" Running.

The "Short Line" to Ocean Park of the Los Angeles and Pacific Railway was opened to public yesterday, and large crowds took advantage of the opportunity of riding over the fine new electric line to the sea. Cars made the trip in thirty-eight minutes, and when the road car is in the most perfect running order it will be reduced to half an hour fast. The cars stop at the stations at Fourth and Hill streets every half hour, and return by the old Sixteenth-street or Hollywood lines. Fifteen-minute service will be put on shortly.

Young Kentuckian Missing.

Word has been received by the local post office to keep a watch for Price Holland, son of W. H. Holland, of Murray, Ky., who left his home July 1, and has been heard from only once since when he wrote from Joplin, Mo., a few days after his disappearance. The young man had considerable money, and his fate, however, has not yet been determined. Records in the hospitals throughout the country are being searched, as Holland was a consummate. The Sheriff's son was 21 years of age, 5 feet 10 inches tall, and had blue eyes and dark hair.

Indicates Son Barred.

Detective Talamantes appeared at the Police Station yesterday, loaded down with a telescope, weighing about forty-five pounds, with clothing that had been stolen from a rooming house by Fernando Baray, who is in the City. The latter, it is said, has stolen a number of trinkets on another charge. As far as discovered, Baray has stolen an outfit of clothing, shoes, etc., from a man named Garcia, a lot of bed linen and clothing from a rooming house on Wilshire street, and a lot of the household material from another rooming house on Commercial street. There may be other districts yet to hear from.

Hemet Takes the Prize.

The fruit growers of Hemet are getting up a reputation for shipping some of the finest peaches seen in Los Angeles this year. Some of the ranchers are making specialty of the family and fancy trade, especially O. A. Van Winkle, who yesterday brought a very fine sample consignment to this city. Van Winkle says that much of the fruit is actually going to waste, or being sold to the canneries, because the drying establishments, whereas care and selection in shipping and packing would assure a ready sale. Fruit carefully packed finds a market, and here is where the Hemet growers have seen and grasped their opportunity.

BREVITIES.

Tomorrow being a double festival (St. Bartholomew's Day, coincident with Sunday), the services in St. John's Episcopal Church, corner of Adams and Figueroa streets, will be of a specially festive character. At 11 o'clock the service of thanksgiving will be fully choral, and the rector, Rev. W. W. R. Taylor, will preach. Choral evensong will be at 5 p.m. The Holy Eucharist will be celebrated at 7:30 p.m. Strangers are cordially invited.

Valuable collection of pictures. Secure the story of the greatest disaster of modern times by sending 10 cent to The Times for the first part of "Marmite," St. Vincent and Danish West Indies, and other parts, to follow.

First Baptist Church, Flower, between Seventh and Eighth streets. Pastor, Joseph S. Hale, will preach (D.V.) tomorrow at 11 o'clock, and at 7:45 o'clock also, the theme, scripture character, "Adam."

Dr. Walker's subjects at Immanuel Church tomorrow morning: "The Influence of the Church on His World." Evening: "The Force of Fashion and the Fashioning of Force."

Fine cabinet photos reduced to $1.15 per dozen. Sunbeam, 22 S. Main.

There are undelivered telegrams at the Postal Telegraph-Cable Company, No. 228 South Spring street, for Milton M. Mayer and J. T. McWethy.

TO KILL THE SULTAN.

VIENNA, Aug. 22.—The newspaper published in Bucharest, Roumania, alleges that it has learned that M. Sarafoff, ex-leader of the Macedonian revolutionary committee, has organized a committee, the object of which is to effect the assassination of the Sultan of Turkey.

CANDIDATES OF SOCIALISTS.

DENVER, Aug. 22.—Edward Boyce, former president of the Western Federation of Miners, will be the candidate of the Socialist party for Governor of Colorado.

Valuable Collection of Pictures.

Secure the story of the greatest disaster of modern times by sending 10 cents to The Times for the first part of "Marmite," St. Vincent and Danish West Indies, and other parts to follow.

"MR. DOOLITTLE" will discuss the comparative advantages of wealth and poverty in his own life, by sending 10 cents to The Times for the first part of "Marmite," St. Vincent and Danish West Indies, and other parts to follow.

"THE CRIME PROBLEM" will be discussed by the president of the New York State Prison Association, in an article in The Times' Magazine of Sunday, August 26.

Securing the story of the greatest disaster of modern times by sending 10 cents to The Times for the first part of "Marmite," St. Vincent and Danish West Indies, and other parts to follow.

SAN DIEGO COUNTY.

ALCOHOL THE SLAYER.
SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.
SAN DIEGO, Aug. 22.—At the end of three weeks the Coroner's Jury has been called together to hear evidence on the death of Ed. Fullerton, a saloon keeper, whose taking away was considered to indicate foul play. Two witnesses were called, Dr. J. C. Hearne, and the brother of those deceased. The investigation was conducted by the District Attorney. Dr. Hearne testified to the chemical analysis of the stomach which had shown indications of alcoholic poisoning, whereas the first opinion had been that the poisoning was of a different sort. The brother testified to the habits of the deceased, saying that he drank large quantities of hard liquors. The verdict of the jury was that the man died of alcoholic poisoning.

DEMOCRATS NOMINATE.

The Democrats held their county convention today. Col. Fred Jewell was elected chairman. The following nominations were made:

For State Senator, H. E. Mills; Superior Judges, N. H. Conklin (incumbent) and W. R. Andrews; County Clerk, W. E. Holcombe; Sheriff, Charles Brodinax; Recorder, W. T. Neely; Assessors, J. J. Burns, District Attorney, Casimir Carter; Superintendent of Schools, C. M. Stetson; Public Administrator, E. M. Cole; Coronor, A. C. Moore; Sheriff, Elmer Dusbury; Tax Collector, B. T. Frederick; City Clerk, W. E. Blomquist; Assemblyman, Eighteenth District, F. J. Blane. A resolution was passed endorsing William E. Smythe Congress from the Eighth District.

SAN DIEGO BREVIETIES.

The Kosmos Linen Kambysses is due from Europe Sunday. Most of her cargo will be discharged here.

The schooner Gerald C. has arrived from the south coast with a cargo of guano.

News has been received of the safe arrival of Bishop Holland in Honolulu. He received a cordial welcome from the people of the diocese.

TENT CITY.

BEST FISHING EVER.
TENT CITY, CORONADO, Aug. 22.—One of the most interesting sights at Tent City late in the afternoon is when the fishermen come in with their catch for the day. They are as sure as the men who don't eat as that he is swearing by all that is good and true that he will never go there again. It is a fact that the fishing is the best this year in the history of shore fishing, especially around the Coronado Islands.

An organization of the young people in camp has been formed to be known as the Indians. Weekly pow-wows are held on the beach and plans made for the events of the coming week.

The mineral show at the Pavilion yesterday afternoon, by the local tent in camp was a big hit. The hall was crowded with people, and they all enjoyed the performance. At the close the Coronado Beach Company gave the company a ride in the automobile, a dinner at the cafe and free tickets to the theater.

Miss Ora Scott, Mrs. Clara H. Scott and Miss Clara Rundell gave a luncheon at their tent on the ocean boulevard yesterday evening. Their guests were Mrs. D. C. Collier, Mrs. George Noland, Mrs. Noland, Mrs. Los Angeles, Mrs. A. Thurston, Mrs. Pinney, Mrs. Carl Stacy, Mrs. Otto A. Longstreet, Mrs. D. M. Bell, Mrs. Pinney, Mrs. A. B. Clapp, Mrs. A. J. Epil, A. W. Love, Mrs. Evan Haasfurther, E. J. Haasfurther, Los Angeles, W. C. Morris, Mrs. H. B. Morris, Mrs. H. W. Mills and wife, Miss M. E. Mills, Miss Irene, Mrs. E. Mills, Mrs. A. M. Lovett, Mrs. H. Cleaver, Salt Lake; Mrs. W. C. Williams, Salt Lake; Mrs. Fred Grill, Hamilton, Mont.; E. G. Cox and wife, Craig; Mr. and Mrs. George Summer, Irene; Mr. and Mrs. Frank, N. J.; Los Angeles and son, Franklin; Mrs. A. H. Bolso; Mr. and Mrs. D. Elwood Kalama, Mich.; A. M. Lovelace, Los Angeles.

Yesterday's arrivals include Julius Springer, Stockton; W. S. Tyler, Los Angeles; Mrs. H. M. Hill, Erma Hill, Elmwood Grove; Lillian Dodge, Mrs. J. H. Morris, Frances Morris, Mrs. H. H. Mills and wife, Miss M. E. Mills; Miss A. B. Clapp, Mrs. A. J. Epil, A. W. Love, Mrs. Evan Haasfurther, E. J. Haasfurther, Los Angeles, W. C. Morris, Mrs. H. B. Morris, Mrs. H. W. Mills and wife, Miss M. E. Mills, Miss Irene, Mrs. H. W. Williams, Salt Lake; Mrs. Fred Grill, Hamilton, Mont.; E. G. Cox and wife, Craig; Mr. and Mrs. George Summer, Irene; Mr. and Mrs. Frank, N. J.; Los Angeles and son, Franklin; Mrs. A. H. Bolso; Mr. and Mrs. D. Elwood Kalama, Mich.; A. M. Lovelace, Los Angeles.

Grips, Suit Cases, Valises, Traveling Rolls, Hand Mirrors, Umbrellas, etc., in the Leather Goods Department.

$9 For a Watch That Tells Correct Time.

Here's a man's watch that will stand hard usage, and yet keep correct time. If you're not particular about the case, but want a time-keeper, this is the watch for you. Works are Elgin or Waltham, seven jewel nickel movement—as fine works as come in many gold cases. A watch made to sell at $18.50.

Geneva Watch and Optical Co., 305 S. Broadway.

PEERLESS BREW BEER

IS A MOST PALATABLE AND HEALTHFUL BEVERAGE.

Per Dozen, Quart, $1.80.

Per Dozen, Pint, 90c.

Southern California Wine Co., 220 W. Fourth Street. Tel. Main 222.

$1.00

15¢

10¢

75¢

50¢

25¢

(Discontinuing this line)

352 S. Spring, Near Fourth St.

BLANEY'S REDONDO BEACH

Round trip fare, 50 cents.

10-ride tickets, good for parties, $1.50.

Trains Leave Los Angeles

REDONDO RY.

12:30 p.m. 2:15 p.m. 3:15 p.m. 4:15 p.m. 5:15 p.m.

1:00 p.m. 3:00 p.m. 4:00 p.m. 5:00 p.m.

1:30 p.m. 4:30 p.m. 5:30 p.m.

2:00 p.m. 3:30 p.m. 4:30 p.m.

2:30 p.m. 3:45 p.m. 4:45 p.m.

3:00 p.m. 4:15 p.m. 5:15 p.m.

3:30 p.m. 4:45 p.m. 5:45 p.m.

4:00 p.m. 5:15 p.m. 6:15 p.m.

4:30 p.m. 5:45 p.m. 6:45 p.m.

5:00 p.m. 6:00 p.m. 7:00 p.m.

5:30 p.m. 6:30 p.m. 7:30 p.m.

5:45 p.m. 6:45 p.m. 7:45 p.m.

6:00 p.m. 7:00 p.m. 8:00 p.m.

6:15 p.m. 7:15 p.m. 8:15 p.m.

6:30 p.m. 7:30 p.m. 8:30 p.m.

6:45 p.m. 7:45 p.m. 8:45 p.m.

7:00 p.m. 8:00 p.m. 9:00 p.m.

7:15 p.m. 8:15 p.m. 9:15 p.m.

7:30 p.m. 8:30 p.m. 9:30 p.m.

7:45 p.m. 8:45 p.m. 9:45 p.m.

8:00 p.m. 9:00 p.m. 10:00 p.m.

8:15 p.m. 9:15 p.m. 10:15 p.m.

8:30 p.m. 9:30 p.m. 10:30 p.m.

8:45 p.m. 9:45 p.m. 10:45 p.m.

9:00 p.m. 10:00 p.m. 11:00 p.m.

9:15 p.m. 10:15 p.m. 11:15 p.m.

9:30 p.m. 10:30 p.m. 11:30 p.m.

9:45 p.m. 10:45 p.m. 11:45 p.m.

10:00 p.m. 11:00 p.m. 12:00 a.m.

10:15 p.m. 11:15 p.m. 12:15 a.m.

10:30 p.m. 11:30 p.m. 12:30 a.m.

10:45 p.m. 11:45 p.m. 12:45 a.m.

11:00 p.m. 12:00 a.m. 1:00 a.m.

11:15 p.m. 12:15 a.m. 1:15 a.m.

11:30 p.m. 12:30 a.m. 1:30 a.m.

11:45 p.m. 12:45 a.m. 1:45 a.m.

12:00 a.m. 1:00 a.m. 2:00 a.m.

12:15 a.m. 1:15 a.m. 2:15 a.m.

CONVENTION IS FINISHED.

Trout Goes in for the Coroner's Job.

Youngworth Lands the Surveyorship.

Long List of Township Nominations Completed Yesterday Afternoon.

Late yesterday afternoon the Republican County Convention adjourned sine die, having completed the county ticket and transacted all the business before it. Dr. J. H. Trout was named for Coroner and Leo Youngworth for Surveyor at the afternoon session. In the morning D. C. McGarvin won the nomination for Public Administrator by a narrow margin. Justice H. C. Austin and Joseph Chambers were nominated as City Justices.

Little public interest was felt in the last session, however, and the crowd in the galleries was smaller than on any day of the convention. McGarvin's narrow escape from defeat caused some excitement at the morning session, as the slate managers thought their candidate would secure the nomination practically without contest. The vote on the final ballot was 386 for McGarvin to 385 for Sherer, with 385 necessary to nominate. This vote was said to indicate the true strength of the convention among Gage and anti-Gage lines, the managers of the Flint campaign in the county conceding a majority of twenty-eight votes in the convention to the Gageites.

There was a great scurrying of undertakers, both Republican and Democratic in affiliation, on the floor of the convention in the afternoon when nominations for Coroner were in order. Those familiar with the administration of the office on the part of the county management knew that another crucial question for the body of some unfortunate was being enacted. Undertakers were everywhere, and the chairman was several times compelled to threaten the Democrats with exposure if they did not cease their work on the floor of the convention. The supporters of Dr. Trout finally stampeded the convention, and he was nominated. The nomination of the present Coroner came in for a good round scoring in the nominating speeches because of the past traffic in bodies.

Leo Youngworth had the honor of being the only candidate before the convention to be nominated without any opposition. Youngworth was exceedingly popular with the delegates, and was cheered to the echo.

Bradner W. Lee was chosen chairman of the County Central Committee for a fourth term, and Walter Leeds was named to succeed D. C. McGarvin, who has served as secretary of the committee for four years. As completed yesterday, the county ticket is as follows:

Administrative Court:

M. T. ALLEN, LUCILLE SHAW, R. N. SMITH, NATHANIEL P. CONNEY.

State Auditor: WILL A. WHITE.

Clerk: G. E. KEYES.

Treasurer: HERBERT G. DOW.

Board of Supervisors: CALVIN HARTWELL.

Assessor: J. F. PRIMES.

Recorder: ROBERT E. WILSON.

Tax Collector: MARK S. JONES.

Superintendent of Schools: W. O. WELCH.

Highway Commissioner: MARY KEPPEL.

County Auditor: J. H. TROUT.

Coroner: LEO YOUNGWORTH.

State Senators:

Thirty-third District: W. H. SAVAGE.

Thirty-fourth District: R. W. HANN.

Thirty-fifth District: C. W. PENNELL.

Thirty-sixth District: JOHN A. GODDICH.

Thirty-seventh District: W. A. JOHNSTON.

Thirty-eighth District: E. W. CAMP.

Seventy-first District: W. H. KELSO.

Seventy-second District: P. A. STANTON.

Seventy-third District: H. S. G. MCARTNEY.

Seventy-fourth District: P. TRAVERS.

Seventy-fifth District: F. E. GANTER.

Supervisors:

First District: G. W. LONGTON.

Third District: A. J. GRAHAM.

Fourth District: WILLIAM YOUNG.

Tenth District: J. H. TROUT.

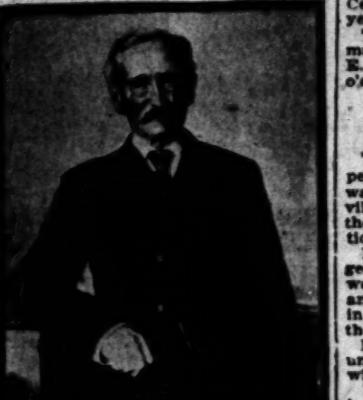

City Justices: H. C. AUSTIN, J. H. CHAMBERS.

MORNING SESSION.

ADMINISTRATOR NAMED.

Not more than three-fourths of the delegates were in their seats at 10:15 o'clock, when Chairman Lawler called the convention to order and inaugurated the morning session of the closing day. Lawler was suffering from an affection of the throat, caused by the strain to which he had put his voice during the preceding sessions, and he immediately called E. A. Meserve to the chair.

Meserve's reign was noted for its admonitions against smoking and walking across the floor.

DR. J. H. TROUT, NOMINATED FOR CORONER.

Nominations for Public Administrator were called for, and were responded to by Hon. Robert W. Lawton, by Hon. Will A. Harris; Col. W. G. Schreiber, by C. C. Bowen; Henry E. Sherer, by George P. Adams; D. C. McGarvin, by Oscar Lawler. The contest for the nomination had been carried on actively throughout the week, and at its close the four candidates named were still in the running, E. H. Hutchinson having dropped out. Nominations closed and balloting began at 11 o'clock.

Twenty minutes later the following result was announced, no nomination ensuing:

McGarvin ..... 372

Sherer ..... 356

Schreiber ..... 30

Total vote ..... 708

Necessary to a choice ..... 387

Schreiber's name being withdrawn, the second ballot resulted as follows:

McGarvin ..... 318

Sherer ..... 367

List ..... 173

Total vote ..... 706

Necessary to a choice ..... 387

Sherer's name then was withdrawn, and the third ballot resulted in the nomination of McGarvin, the vote being:

McGarvin ..... 396

Sherer ..... 366

Total vote ..... 764

Necessary to a choice ..... 383

The nomination of McGarvin then was made unanimous, on motion of George Adams, who had nominated Sherer.

TICKET COMPLETED.

TROUT AND YOUNGWORTH.

J. G. Rosister, Esq., of Pasadena called the convention to order at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon. There was a sparse attendance in the galleries, and the delegates were slow in gathering. A hard fight for nomination as coroner was fought, and some little excitement was evident on the floor.

When nominations for Coroner were called, Dr. C. B. Dickson named Dr. W. G. Rossiter, of Pasadena, and asked for the withdrawal of the convention on the one issue of a public morgue for Los Angeles. E. A. Meserve placed Dr. Edward Henderson of Pomona before the convention. In the afternoon Dr. Phillipine placed one man from the country in order to strengthen the ticket. J. H. Phillips placed Dr. J. H. Trout of the Third Ward in nomination, amid great applause. Harry H. Rose of the Fourth Ward was nominated, and Dr. E. O. Sawyer of Pico Heights. All the candidates were pledged in the nominating speeches to stop the traffic in bodies which had been carried on by certain firms of undertakers in the past, with the aid of the police. Over half of the firms of those firms on the floor yesterday the balloting proceeded but slowly.

The result of the first ballot was Chatsworth—Frank Hawley, Justice of the peace; Arthur Adams, constable. Compton—James L. Morden, justice of the peace; Charles G. Davidson, constable.

Election officers who served at the convention yesterday were: Clerk, C. L. Wilde; Clerk, Foreman, C. P. Kitts; Hartley Shaw; Inspectors, T. J. Waters, W. L. Cuthbert, G. A. Lawrence, D. C. Teague; Judges, M. C. Newell, F. W. Forrester, W. H. Lawton, H. G. Thompson.

Conspicuous on the floor of the convention and in the lobbies yesterday, as they have been throughout the proceedings of the Republican body, were representations of the "El Hatch" ("El Hatch") of "El Hatch," and a number of other Democrats whose influence has been potent in the Republican primaries and in the councils of the Party-Brown "combination." So notorious are these men that it is felt that it was necessary to order them from the floor several times, and they were forced to transact all business with the Glad mamas in the committee rooms or on the sidewalk in front of the pavilion. "El Hatch" lent his aid to the undertakers yesterday afternoon during the balloting for Coroner, and to Savage is credited the election of the latter in the Seventy-fourth Assembly District.

The Executive Committee of the Republican City Central Committee yesterday appointed William Cord secretary, and Frank E. Ludlow, who resigned recently.

Frank E. Ludlow—William Cord, justice of the peace; Vicente Morcillo, constable.

Downey—No nominations.

Fairmont—G. O. Hughes, justice of the peace; no constable nominated.

Redondo—Welcome Smith, justice of the peace; Henry Usrey, constable.

South Pasadena—G. A. Gleason, justice of the peace; M. B. Reid, constable.

Like a war hero who returns chuckling over his plans to surprise the family that thought him dead, Mayor Snyder stole into town yesterday afternoon.

He blew into the deserted City Hall at 4 o'clock, having arrived on the 1 o'clock train from the North. The interim he had spent in preparing for the ordeal of embracing the expectant Democracy, and when he appeared he looked like a prize-winner at the horse show. Glancing fearfully to right and left, the Mayor bounded up the stairs two steps at a time, and made his bedline in his office door. Inside he was cordially welcomed by Secretary Wright, one reporter, and the janitor.

But the news of "Hizzoner's" arrival spread quickly, and in less than five minutes his offices resembled the ante-room of a national convention. Democrats came in swarms to shake the glad hand and get the real news from up North. Snyder assured them one and all that the gubernatorial nomination could not be kept from him with his own hands, and that it simply a stake for a horse against a bunch of selling platters—and that it is all over but the shouting.

The reporter who was lucky enough to get into the crowd of two thousand who had gathered outside the mayor's office was told by Mr. Lee that he was possessed of wealth that fairly took the breath away from the most courageous interviewee, while about a dozen local Democratic leaders changed feet and waited a little longer. The Mayor not only announced his candidacy for Governor, but declared that he had no desire for political power, and that he would not intend to become a candidate for any office. If intrusted with the duty of guiding the County Central Committee in the fall campaign, he assured his constituents he would do all in his power to further the interests of the party.

The first session of the committee was held on the main floor of the pavilion immediately after the adjournment of the convention. Mr. Lee called to order by Mr. Lee, J. J. Petermichal acted as secretary.

After the roll call J. G. Rosister gained the floor and nominated Mr. Lee as permanent chairman. He thought the terms should not change, horse in the middle of the stream, and that the issue of the fall campaign could not be confined to better hands than those that had so often guided the Republican party to victory in the County.

J. T. Leftwich named George P. Adams, and Mr. Lee tried to retire from the race by urging Mr. Adams to withdraw. Only a few votes had been cast when Dr. Johnston got the floor and withdrew from the race.

The fight now lay between Trout and Henderson, and there was great excitement on the floor.

The chairman was empowered to name the permanent secretaries and the Executive Committee, to consist of two members from each Assembly district, and five at large, or a committee of twenty-three members instead of twenty-two, as heretofore.

Walter Lee, secretary of the convention, was named by Mr. Lee as his

LEO V. YOUNGWORTH, NOMINATED FOR SURVEYOR.

Calhoun—Officers will be chosen at meeting to be held at the Pass schoolhouse on the 27th inst.

Calabasas—No nominations.

Glendale—William L. Justice, constable.

Hawley—No nominations.

Orange County Towns--Santa Ana and Anaheim.

NEWS REPORTS FROM TIMES CORRESPONDENTS.

BAREFOOT BICYCLER KURT IN SANTA ANA.

EATING PEACHES AND RIDING A PAINFUL COMBINATION.

Veterans of Orange County to Hold Picnic in October—Groom's Father Ties the Knot—Ball Park Closed—Benedictus and Bachelor Bowl.

SANTA ANA, Aug. 22.—Robert Brown's foot was painfully lacerated today by being caught in the front wheel of a bicycle. He was barefooted, and with a companion, Chris Buell, was riding on the street. The boys were eating and carrying peaches, when the accident occurred. Both boys were thrown, but Buell escaped injury.

VETERANS' PICNIC.

The annual encampment of the Orange County Veterans' Association will be held October 16 at Orange, the home of the president, A. H. Hibber. A business session of the association will be held at 10:30, after which a basic lunch will be given to all visiting members. In the afternoon, addresses by G.A.R. and U.C.V. men will be delivered, and music will be furnished under the direction of the W.R.C. All veterans' associations and auxiliaries in the county will participate in the encampment.

OFF FOR CONVENTION.

N. N. Brown, H. K. Snow, Dr. R. A. Cushman, T. J. Alexander, W. H. Thompson, Robert Williams and G. A. Harlin left today for San Francisco to attend the Republican State and Congressional conventions at Sacramento next week. Nearly all the remainder of Orange county's delegation will go north tomorrow. All are working for Prof. J. P. Greeley, Orange county's candidate for State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

HOME WEDDING.

Herbert H. Pyke, son of Rev. R.

Pyle of this city, and Miss Rita O'Donnell, daughter of J. A. Donnell, of Havre, Mont., were united in marriage yesterday evening in the presence of friends at the home of the groom's parents on First street, the groom's father performing the ceremony. After the marriage a wedding supper was served, and this morning the couple went to Laguna. They will return in a few days to make this city their residence.

PARK CLOSED.

The athletic park on East Sixth street, where baseball games have been conducted continuously on Sundays for the past several months, will be closed for a few weeks, the grounds being resurfaced with grading improvements on the grounds. The diamond will be put in better shape, additional guard mesh-wire nets placed, and seating capacity added to the grand stands. No engagements will be played by the Orange county men until the park is reopened.

BENEDICTUS VS. BACHELORS.

One of the most closely-contested games of nine pins ever rolled on local alleys was that last night between the Benedictus and Bachelors, two teams of expert Santa Ana bowlers. The former won by 77 to 74. The Benedictus include Messrs. Hankey, Raney, Wehrly, Olney and Tolle, and the Bachelors, Messrs. Hole, Walker, Tubbs, Paxton and Turner.

SANTA ANA BREVITIES.

Miss Rena Dobson left today for Marshalltown, Iowa, after spending the winter with her father, Dr. George H. Dobson.

Everett McLellan of the Occidental College faculty of Los Angeles is the guest of Santa Ana friends for a few days.

A marriage license was issued today to Etta O'Donnell of Montana and Herbert Pyke of Tulare.

Miss Rose Parsons and sister, Miss Betty Parsons, are spending a week at Coronado Tent City.

W. W. Richardson and N. C. Richardson of the Victor stage line are visiting friends here.

Jesse Goldsmith and mother, Mrs. S. Goldsmith, are back from a visit to Santa Monica.

W. L. G. Huskins and family of Tustin are at Newport Beach for a week's outing.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Packard have returned to their home in Berkeley.

Miss Anna Nardman, who has been a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Tyner the past month, has returned to San Francisco.

A tennis club has been formed at Anaheim Landing.

San Bernardino and Riverside Counties.

NEWS REPORTS FROM TIMES CORRESPONDENTS.

MUCH MONEY NEEDED FOR WATER SUPPLY.

LARGE BOND ISSUE CONFRONTING SAN BERNARDINO.

Either Plan Would Require Nearly Two Hundred Thousand Dollars—Prohibitionists Make Nominations—Preparations for Celebrating Admission Day.

SAN BERNARDINO, Aug. 22.—No matter which one of the plans which the City Trustees have decided to submit to the voters provide for an adequate municipal water supply, may be adopted, a bond issue of over $150,000 will be required. The cost of the Hubbard water supply will be $65,000. The estimated cost of laying a 20-inch main to the city and for distributing lines is $80,000, for purchasing the Baldwin tract and erecting a pumping plant thereon, $35,500; for purchasing the "ant hill" tract and erecting a pumping plant thereon, $38,300. The choice of the supplementary propositions will rest between the Baldwin tract and the "ant hill" tract, but the voters can vote for or against any one or more, or all of the propositions.

DRY NOMINERS.

The Prohibitionists held their county convention today at Urbita Springs, and nominated the following candidates: W. M. Hickman, George Clerk, D. G. Evans, Sheriff; A. N. Clark, Recorder; Russell K. Hall; Treasurer; J. F. Edwards; Tax Collector; R. F. Phelps; Coroner; Dr. J. J. Meyers; Public Administrator; C. L. Meacham; Superintendent of Schools; D. H. Taylor. No nominations were made for Superior Judge, District Attorney or Surveyor.

ADMISSION DAY.

The committees in charge of the proposed Admission Day celebration, will be held at Urbita Springs, and in the evening a dance will be given at the pavilion. The committee in charge are meeting up as follows: Royce E. Rich, I. H. Curtis, Henry Shay, C. A. Lamb, Dr. N. McFarlane; Entertainment—Warren Weaver, R. E. Swig, George Moore, J. A. Vale, W. E. Kline, Dr. W. C. Gandy, Dr. W. H. W. D. Wagner, John Anderson, Jr.; W. D. Allen, James Cook, J. R. Cranford, J. W. Catick.

LOW TAX LEVY.

The tax levy for the coming year, as fixed by the City Trustees yesterday, will be $1.20 on each $100 of valuation; divided among the funds as follows: General, one cent; street, 25 cents; grammar school, 5 cents; library, 20 cents. This is the lowest levy for a number of years, although the amount raised for library purposes will exceed that of any previous year. The water department is now self-supporting.

SAN BERNARDINO BREVITIES.

Harry Kleuter has petitioned for letters of administration on the estate of the late Herman Kleuter, whose property, consisting of real estate, securities and cash, is valued at about $25,000.

Albert, the two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. B. Schindler, died yesterday. The funeral was held this afternoon at the family residence on H street.

Charles Eckhart, who has served two years in the five years' enrollment in the navy, on board the U.S.S. Alert, is visiting his parents.

Judge and Mrs. F. W. Gregg have returned from a two weeks' stay at Squirrel Inn.

Joseph Ingleson was called to Ocean Park yesterday by the illness of his wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Clark left yesterday on an eastern trip.

Miss M. Adele Collier left today for San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. James Cole are in San Francisco.

L. D. Houghton has returned to Catania.

REDLANDS.

NEWS BREVITIES.

REDLANDS, Aug. 22.—A movement is on foot toward the erection of a modern tourist hotel in Redlands. Local capitalists are seriously considering the project. They are planning to put up a building which will contain about forty rooms, to be ready for use before the tourist season shall have ended.

Dr. Leslie G. Mosely, who was en route for a visit to the Kentucky home, was caught in the Santa Fé wreck near Cosimo. He was uninjured, and rendered valuable assistance to those who were hurt.

Although Redlands no longer has an academy, the old academy of Music building has been converted into offices, the people are not to be deprived of all such pleasures. The first good attraction will be Souza's Band, which will appear at the new Bandstand, October 12. Five hundred chairs are to be placed in the drill-hall, and a temporary stage will be built.

RIVERSIDE AFTER TWENTY YEARS.

RIVERSIDE, Aug. 22.—Anna C. Curtis has brought suit to be restored possession of a lot having a frontage of 54 feet on Eighth street, with a depth of 330 feet, in block 8, range 13, and to have the title cleared and placed in her name. The defendants, S. S. Patterson, Harry Marcham, D. H. Gillan, June Avia and Avis Talman, Chester W. Chapin and Mr. and Mrs. Hiram A. Knapp, have had possession over twenty years.

RIVERSIDE BREVITIES.

The Riverside delegation to the Republican State Convention has secured dozen rooms at the Hotel House Hotel, where the headquarters will be located during the visitors' stay at the against Gage from start to finish, as it is desirous of representing the sentiment of the party in this county. On the first ballot there will be eight votes for Film and two for Fardeel. Unless Fardeel should develop "unexpected strength," it is practically settled that Film will receive the unanimous support of the Santa Barbara delegation as long as he had not agreed to be a candidate before the convention. Superintendent Donahue of the Highland asphalt farm, a Democrat appointed by ex-Gov. Budd and retained by Gov. Gage, has been in the city for the past few days, endeavoring to swing a part of the local delegation into the Gage column. He failed absolutely, and took the train for the north to work in more promising fields.

POTTER SLEPT WELL.

In line with his theory that the 13th of the month possesses the charm of fortune for him, Milo M. Potter, who is at the head of the company now building the big tourist hotel, celebrated the 19th inst. by sleeping in his unfinished hotel. The story of his birth, entering upon his first business venture, breaking ground for the Van Nuys Hotel in Los Angeles, meeting the lady who capital. Most of the delegates left today.

Cornor Dickson went to Temecula to conduct an inquest on the bodies of William Richmon and his eight-year-old son, who were drowned yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Pequenat entered Wednesday evening at their home on Walnut street, company of about thirty friends, all former residents of St. Louis, the guests of honor being four prominent Pythians from that city. Ex-Mayor George S. Aldrich, Lewis H. Richmon and C. L. Sharpe.

Joseph Silva, a brother of Mrs. J. G. Soares died yesterday, aged 26 years. The funeral services will be conducted by the Catholic Church tomorrow by Rev. Father Conner.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Hamilton are enjoying an outing trip in Bear Valley.

N. S. Mason left yesterday for La Verne, Minn., where he will visit relatives.

Rev. E. F. Goff has returned to San Diego, where he will spend the balance of his summer vacation.

I. S. Logan left yesterday for Sacramento to get things ready for the Riverside delegates to the State convention.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Boyer are at Elsinore.

It is probable that a large creamery will be established soon at Ethanac.

IDYLWILD.

NEWS BREVITIES.

IDYLWILD, Aug. 22.—The past week has been one of unusual gaiety. Three days were occupied by a tennis tournament, the finale of which brought out exceptionally good play. Thursday was devoted to women's and men's singles. The following-named ladies entered: Misses Edna Foy, Bessie Schumwell, Carrie Schumwell, Mary Foy, Celia Foy, Josephine Bennett, Mrs. Stranahan, Francis Brooks; Miss Fred Whitney and Charles Hubbard. The men who entered were: P. F. Schumacher, F. T. Fitzgerald, Frank W. Clegg, William G. Allen, Oliver Carroll, Wilson, F. A. Lewis, White and Charles L. Hubbard.

Probably the most interesting game of the tournament was the final mixed doubles, won by Alice and Celia Foy vs. Lee Guyer and Miss Edna Foy. It was won by the former two, with a score of 9-7 and 6-4.

Mrs. Bessie Schumwell and the ladies' singles champion, Lee Guyer, won by Mr. Clegg.

With the most atrocious the crime for which Morse was sentenced was most atrocious. With Cornor Dickson went to Temecula to conduct an inquest on the bodies of William Richmon and his eight-year-old son, who were drowned yesterday.

They also took with them a large quantity of liquor. An old quarrel was revived, and Morse deliberately shot his companion through the breast, which they could not enter. Even as they thrived with pride in their attainment, they felt a thrill of pride, as the gun was fired.

Both the energy that had made childhood a perilous one flowed readily into the new channels. The first month found her contented, the second month she was a wild, awkward slip of a girl who wept and tears when her desire was unfolded. She never, never could go off to that eastern college. She would die of homesickness. Mrs. Bergen quite melted at the picture, but her husband was firm. It was best for her to go, and so she did.

With the energy that had made

childhood a perilous one flowed readily into the new channels. The first month found her contented, the second month she was a wild, awkward slip of a girl who wept and tears when her desire was unfolded. She never, never could go off to that eastern college. She would die of homesickness. Mrs. Bergen quite melted at the picture, but her husband was firm. It was best for her to go, and so she did.

With the energy that had made

childhood a perilous one flowed readily into the new channels. The first month found her contented, the second month she was a wild, awkward slip of a girl who wept and tears when her desire was unfolded. She never, never could go off to that eastern college. She would die of homesickness. Mrs. Bergen quite melted at the picture, but her husband was firm. It was best for her to go, and so she did.

With the energy that had made

childhood a perilous one flowed readily into the new channels. The first month found her contented, the second month she was a wild, awkward slip of a girl who wept and tears when her desire was unfolded. She never, never could go off to that eastern college. She would die of homesickness. Mrs. Bergen quite melted at the picture, but her husband was firm. It was best for her to go, and so she did.

With the energy that had made

childhood a perilous one flowed readily into the new channels. The first month found her contented, the second month she was a wild, awkward slip of a girl who wept and tears when her desire was unfolded. She never, never could go off to that eastern college. She would die of homesickness. Mrs. Bergen quite melted at the picture, but her husband was firm. It was best for her to go, and so she did.

With the energy that had made

childhood a perilous one flowed readily into the new channels. The first month found her contented, the second month she was a wild, awkward slip of a girl who wept and tears when her desire was unfolded. She never, never could go off to that eastern college. She would die of homesickness. Mrs. Bergen quite melted at the picture, but her husband was firm. It was best for her to go, and so she did.

With the energy that had made

childhood a perilous one flowed readily into the new channels. The first month found her contented, the second month she was a wild, awkward slip of a girl who wept and tears when her desire was unfolded. She never, never could go off to that eastern college. She would die of homesickness. Mrs. Bergen quite melted at the picture, but her husband was firm. It was best for her to go, and so she did.

With the energy that had made

childhood a perilous one flowed readily into the new channels. The first month found her contented, the second month she was a wild, awkward slip of a girl who wept and tears when her desire was unfolded. She never, never could go off to that eastern college. She would die of homesickness. Mrs. Bergen quite melted at the picture, but her husband was firm. It was best for her to go, and so she did.

With the energy that had made

childhood a perilous one flowed readily into the new channels. The first month found her contented, the second month she was a wild, awkward slip of a girl who wept and tears when her desire was unfolded. She never, never could go off to that eastern college. She would die of homesickness. Mrs. Bergen quite melted at the picture, but her husband was firm. It was best for her to go, and so she did.

With the energy that had made

childhood a perilous one flowed readily into the new channels. The first month found her contented, the second month she was a wild, awkward slip of a girl who wept and tears when her desire was unfolded. She never, never could go off to that eastern college. She would die of homesickness. Mrs. Bergen quite melted at the picture, but her husband was firm. It was best for her to go, and so she did.

With the energy that had made

childhood a perilous one flowed readily into the new channels. The first month found her contented, the second month she was a wild, awkward slip of a girl who wept and tears when her desire was unfolded. She never, never could go off to that eastern college. She would die of homesickness. Mrs. Bergen quite melted at the picture, but her husband was firm. It was best for her to go, and so she did.

With the energy that had made

childhood a perilous one flowed readily into the new channels. The first month found her contented, the second month she was a wild, awkward slip of a girl who wept and tears when her desire was unfolded. She never, never could go off to that eastern college. She would die of homesickness. Mrs. Bergen quite melted at the picture, but her husband was firm. It was best for her to go, and so she did.

With the energy that had made</p

SATURDAY, AUGUST 23, 1902.

Los Angeles County: Its Cities, Towns, Hamlets and Suburban Places.

(NEWS REPORTS FROM TIMES CORRESPONDENTS.)

BEAUTY TOUCHES FOR CROWN OF VALLEY.*MARSHMALLOW SHOWING RESULTS OF "TRIMMING UP."

Holiday Homestead Sold and Estate and Residence to go on the Site—Giant Cape Myrtle Tree Loaded with Blossoms—New Books.

PASADENA. Office of The Times, 5 South Raymond avenue, Aug. 22.—The work of beautifying the city through plantings and thoroughfares by a systematic trimming of trees and shrubs and the cleaning up of neglected parks, although begun barely two months ago, already shows in the improved conditions in certain localities.

At the instigation of Mayor Weight, under the supervision of the city engineer, a special committee was taken up for the first time last year. There was immediately a general hue and cry on the part of property owners who descended in mass upon the offices of the Mayor and Street Superintendent with protest against the anticipated mutilation of the street shade trees were sure to be at the hands of ruffians, con- sequently the popularly experienced, however, proved so entirely satisfied with the results that this year the Mayor has been besieged with many wishes to know how soon the tree man is coming to be "trimmed up" again.

Two score of men are engaged in these operations, and have carried the good work as far southwest as Lockheed streets and as far east as Lake California streets.

The work of the tree man is being done at the expense of the many suffering heroic treatment, but $800 was expended, the work being done over two months. The score of men is less than double, and will be continued within six weeks.

The privilege of doing all its tree-trimming, which will give a uniformity to the trees, will make the park-like city she claims to be.

Rev. Hayes Moore of Santa Fe, N.M., will supply the pulpit of the Presbyterian Church for the next three Sundays.

Prof. Blake of Harvard Medical College, who is to speak before the Medical Society in the Stickney Memorial building, arrived yesterday from the East.

George Hutchins and family leave today for an extended outing at Pasadena.

Miss Aggie Davis goes to Washington today for her summer outfit.

Mrs. Katherine Bloodgood, the well-known singer, who is filling an oratorio engagement at the great theater in San Diego recently for "hay, view and climate," with the expectation of making that city her home, has returned to Pasadena, with his goods and chattels.

Miss Miriam Gardner.

W. L. Wotkyna and family, together with Dr. H. H. Sherer and family, have come down from Terminal where each has taken a cottage for the month of September.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Jardine and son left on Thursday's limited for New York with the expectation of being absent two months.

Mrs. W. M. Wotkyna, expected from the same party, will remain until the last of September, and will be joined again by Bishop Johnson, who was called away from camp some time since by professional duties.

SALE OF REAL ESTATE.

An important transaction in real estate was effected today, although the name of the purchaser and the consideration has not been made public. The well-known property, spoken of since early July as the Rickenberg home, on South Mareno avenue, has been sold through the agency of Benjamin Rickert.

This property originally consisted of two lots, one of which was not now down on the owner's books as several subdivisions had been made.

It is understood that the land was used as the site for an elegant house, and that the homestead was in the possession of Mrs. Rickert.

She turned back Monday morning, having sold the house to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wadsworth.

She fell forward.

She awoke to the sound of water dashed upon her head, and opened her eyes to find she was lying on the floor of her room, which was empty.

She turned back Monday morning, having sold the house to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wadsworth.

She fell forward.

She awoke to the sound of water dashed upon her head, and opened her eyes to find she was lying on the floor of her room, which was empty.

She turned back Monday morning, having sold the house to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wadsworth.

She fell forward.

She awoke to the sound of water dashed upon her head, and opened her eyes to find she was lying on the floor of her room, which was empty.

She turned back Monday morning, having sold the house to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wadsworth.

She fell forward.

She awoke to the sound of water dashed upon her head, and opened her eyes to find she was lying on the floor of her room, which was empty.

She turned back Monday morning, having sold the house to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wadsworth.

She fell forward.

She awoke to the sound of water dashed upon her head, and opened her eyes to find she was lying on the floor of her room, which was empty.

She turned back Monday morning, having sold the house to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wadsworth.

She fell forward.

She awoke to the sound of water dashed upon her head, and opened her eyes to find she was lying on the floor of her room, which was empty.

She turned back Monday morning, having sold the house to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wadsworth.

She fell forward.

She awoke to the sound of water dashed upon her head, and opened her eyes to find she was lying on the floor of her room, which was empty.

She turned back Monday morning, having sold the house to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wadsworth.

She fell forward.

She awoke to the sound of water dashed upon her head, and opened her eyes to find she was lying on the floor of her room, which was empty.

She turned back Monday morning, having sold the house to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wadsworth.

She fell forward.

She awoke to the sound of water dashed upon her head, and opened her eyes to find she was lying on the floor of her room, which was empty.

She turned back Monday morning, having sold the house to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wadsworth.

She fell forward.

She awoke to the sound of water dashed upon her head, and opened her eyes to find she was lying on the floor of her room, which was empty.

She turned back Monday morning, having sold the house to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wadsworth.

She fell forward.

She awoke to the sound of water dashed upon her head, and opened her eyes to find she was lying on the floor of her room, which was empty.

She turned back Monday morning, having sold the house to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wadsworth.

She fell forward.

She awoke to the sound of water dashed upon her head, and opened her eyes to find she was lying on the floor of her room, which was empty.

She turned back Monday morning, having sold the house to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wadsworth.

She fell forward.

She awoke to the sound of water dashed upon her head, and opened her eyes to find she was lying on the floor of her room, which was empty.

She turned back Monday morning, having sold the house to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wadsworth.

She fell forward.

She awoke to the sound of water dashed upon her head, and opened her eyes to find she was lying on the floor of her room, which was empty.

She turned back Monday morning, having sold the house to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wadsworth.

She fell forward.

She awoke to the sound of water dashed upon her head, and opened her eyes to find she was lying on the floor of her room, which was empty.

She turned back Monday morning, having sold the house to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wadsworth.

She fell forward.

She awoke to the sound of water dashed upon her head, and opened her eyes to find she was lying on the floor of her room, which was empty.

She turned back Monday morning, having sold the house to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wadsworth.

She fell forward.

She awoke to the sound of water dashed upon her head, and opened her eyes to find she was lying on the floor of her room, which was empty.

She turned back Monday morning, having sold the house to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wadsworth.

She fell forward.

She awoke to the sound of water dashed upon her head, and opened her eyes to find she was lying on the floor of her room, which was empty.

She turned back Monday morning, having sold the house to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wadsworth.

She fell forward.

She awoke to the sound of water dashed upon her head, and opened her eyes to find she was lying on the floor of her room, which was empty.

She turned back Monday morning, having sold the house to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wadsworth.

She fell forward.

She awoke to the sound of water dashed upon her head, and opened her eyes to find she was lying on the floor of her room, which was empty.

She turned back Monday morning, having sold the house to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wadsworth.

She fell forward.

She awoke to the sound of water dashed upon her head, and opened her eyes to find she was lying on the floor of her room, which was empty.

She turned back Monday morning, having sold the house to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wadsworth.

She fell forward.

She awoke to the sound of water dashed upon her head, and opened her eyes to find she was lying on the floor of her room, which was empty.

She turned back Monday morning, having sold the house to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wadsworth.

She fell forward.

She awoke to the sound of water dashed upon her head, and opened her eyes to find she was lying on the floor of her room, which was empty.

She turned back Monday morning, having sold the house to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wadsworth.

She fell forward.

She awoke to the sound of water dashed upon her head, and opened her eyes to find she was lying on the floor of her room, which was empty.

She turned back Monday morning, having sold the house to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wadsworth.

She fell forward.

She awoke to the sound of water dashed upon her head, and opened her eyes to find she was lying on the floor of her room, which was empty.

She turned back Monday morning, having sold the house to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wadsworth.

She fell forward.

She awoke to the sound of water dashed upon her head, and opened her eyes to find she was lying on the floor of her room, which was empty.

She turned back Monday morning, having sold the house to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wadsworth.

She fell forward.

She awoke to the sound of water dashed upon her head, and opened her eyes to find she was lying on the floor of her room, which was empty.

She turned back Monday morning, having sold the house to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wadsworth.

She fell forward.

She awoke to the sound of water dashed upon her head, and opened her eyes to find she was lying on the floor of her room, which was empty.

She turned back Monday morning, having sold the house to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wadsworth.

She fell forward.

She awoke to the sound of water dashed upon her head, and opened her eyes to find she was lying on the floor of her room, which was empty.

She turned back Monday morning, having sold the house to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wadsworth.

She fell forward.

She awoke to the sound of water dashed upon her head, and opened her eyes to find she was lying on the floor of her room, which was empty.

She turned back Monday morning, having sold the house to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wadsworth.

She fell forward.

She awoke to the sound of water dashed upon her head, and opened her eyes to find she was lying on the floor of her room, which was empty.

She turned back Monday morning, having sold the house to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wadsworth.

She fell forward.

She awoke to the sound of water dashed upon her head, and opened her eyes to find she was lying on the floor of her room, which was empty.

She turned back Monday morning, having sold the house to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wadsworth.

She fell forward.

She awoke to the sound of water dashed upon her head, and opened her eyes to find she was lying on the floor of her room, which was empty.

She turned back Monday morning, having sold the house to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wadsworth.

She fell forward.

She awoke to the sound of water

